INDIVIDUAL . . .

The individual . . .

What is he?

Where does he come from?

Why is he important?

What makes him unique?

What are his feelings?

How does he react when . . .

he finally understands his biology teacher's explanation of cell mitosis?

the late bell rings and he's only half-dressed after gym?

the college of his choice finally sends him a letter of acceptance?

he is working at the school while everyone else is at home eating his supper?

he suddenly realizes that life is more than Vandergrift and football games?

The individual . . .

Sometimes alone even when he's in a crowd,
Or maybe happy because he shares trig class with his favorite girl. Disgusted because the whole world seems down on him,
Or friendly and secure because someone simply smiled and said "Hi".

Afraid that he might disappoint someone important to him,

Or confident that there is something only he, alone, can contribute.

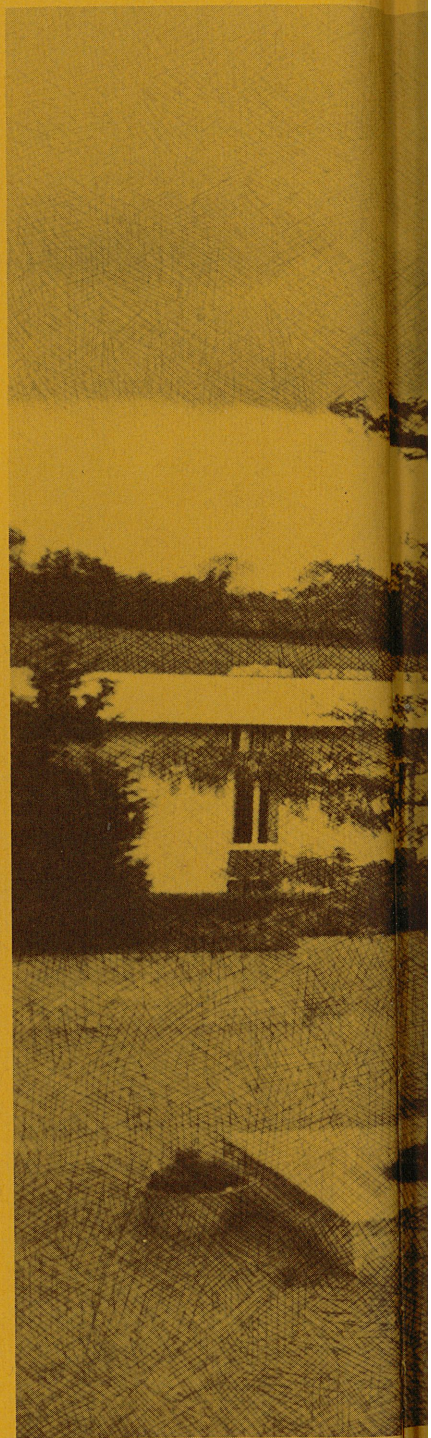

This is the individual at Kiski. This and much more. A unique identity.

Hear what he has to say,

Listen to what he thinks . . .

Alex Buccieri

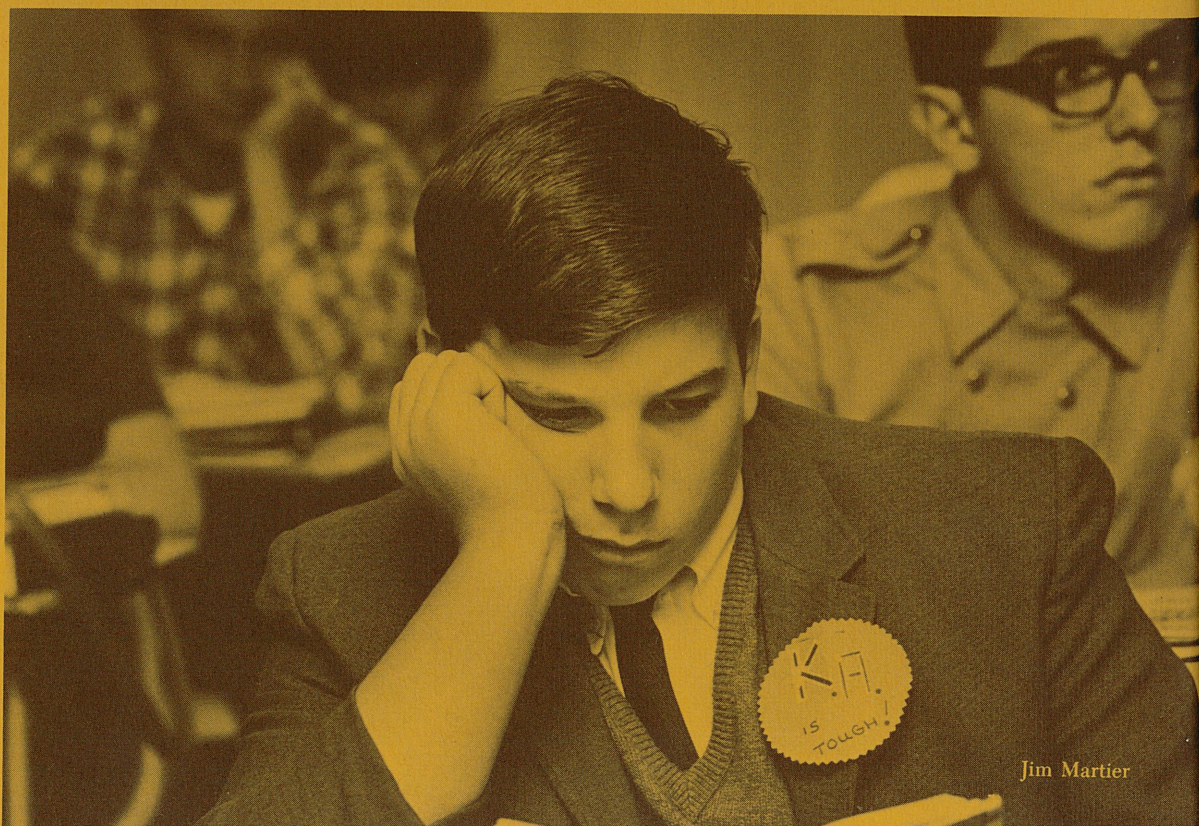

“The school buildings of Kiski don’t make it the best; it’s the people that do.”

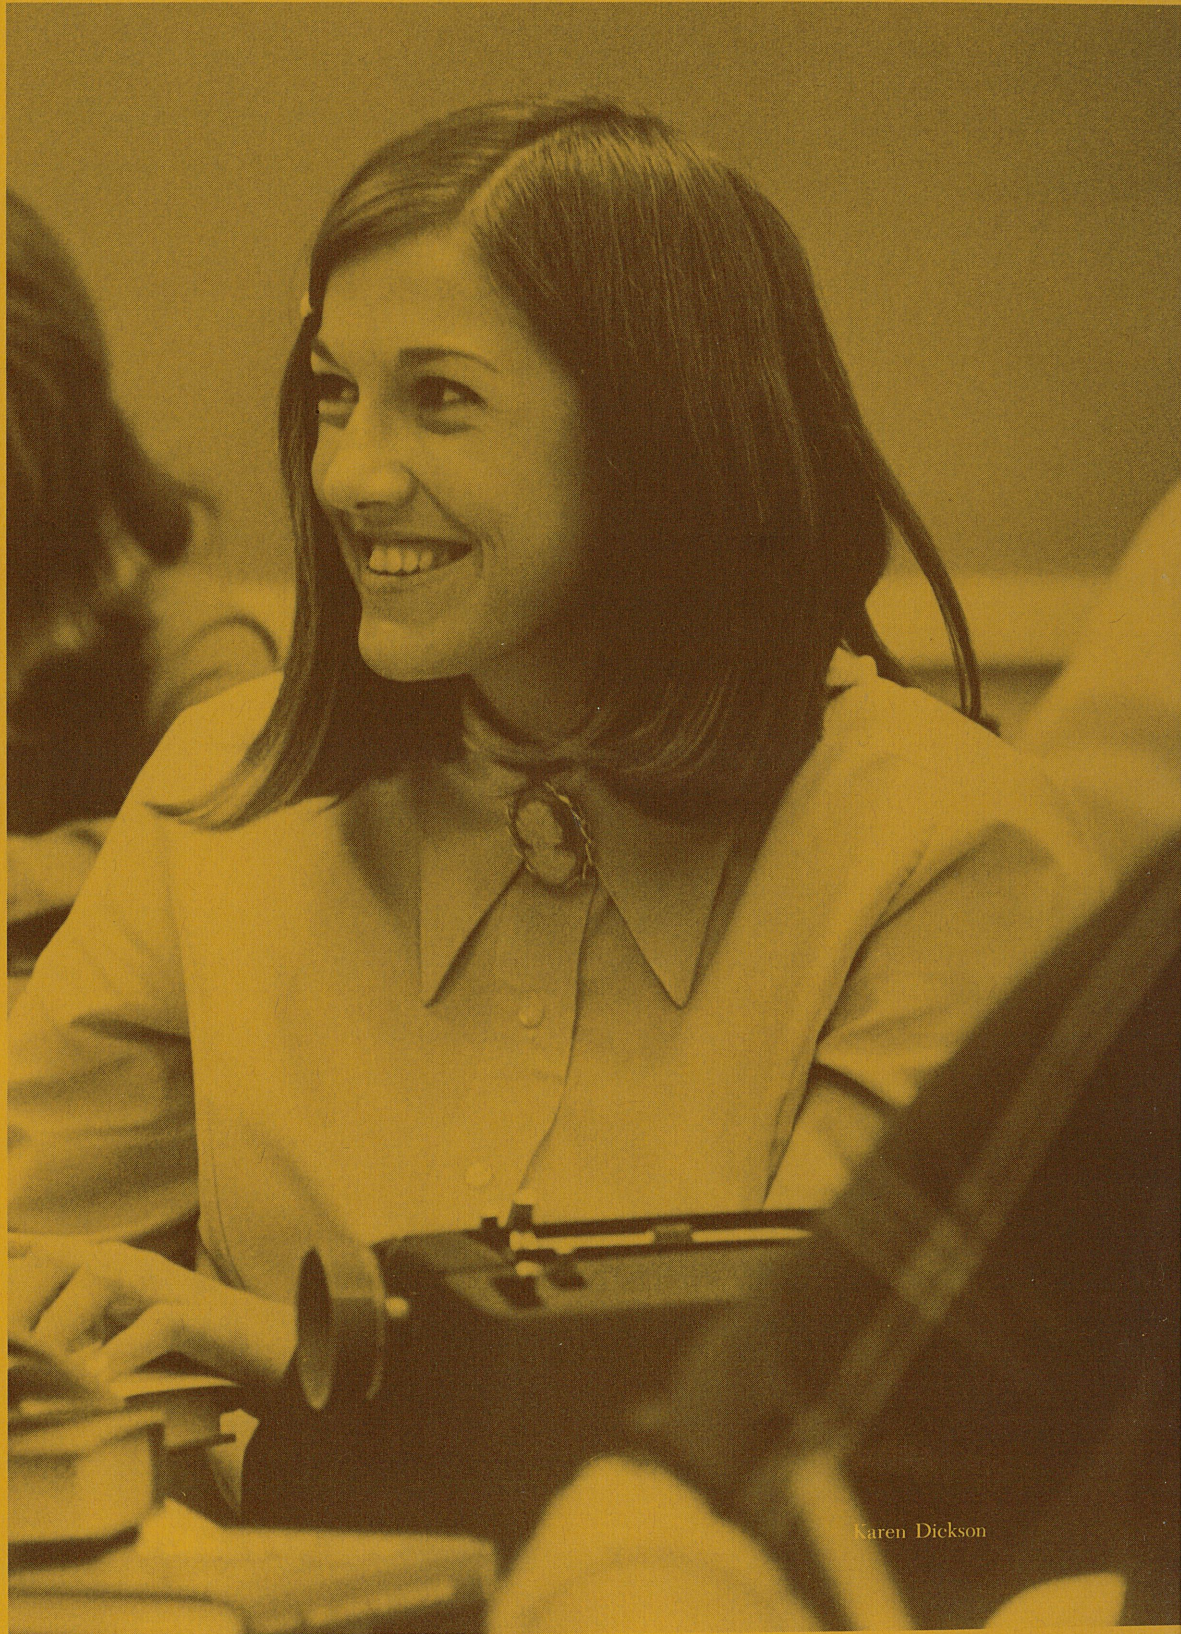

"It's your life;
you're the one who's making your name
and good grades will determine your future.
If you don't want to make anything out of your life then
keep making low grades;
but if it's the other way around, you had better try harder."

Jim Martier

"I think why in the heck am
I sitting here
wasting time when man only has minutes to live."

Karen Dickson

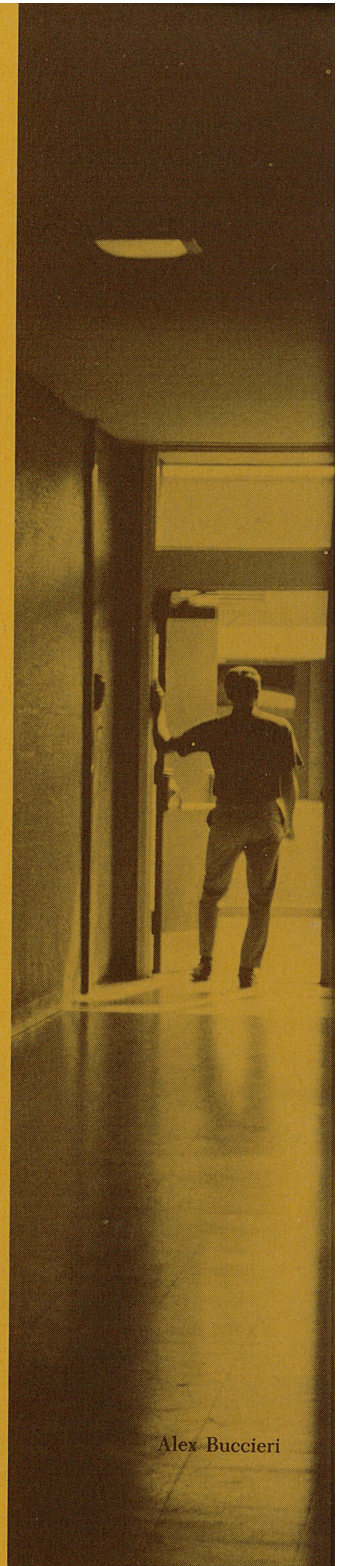

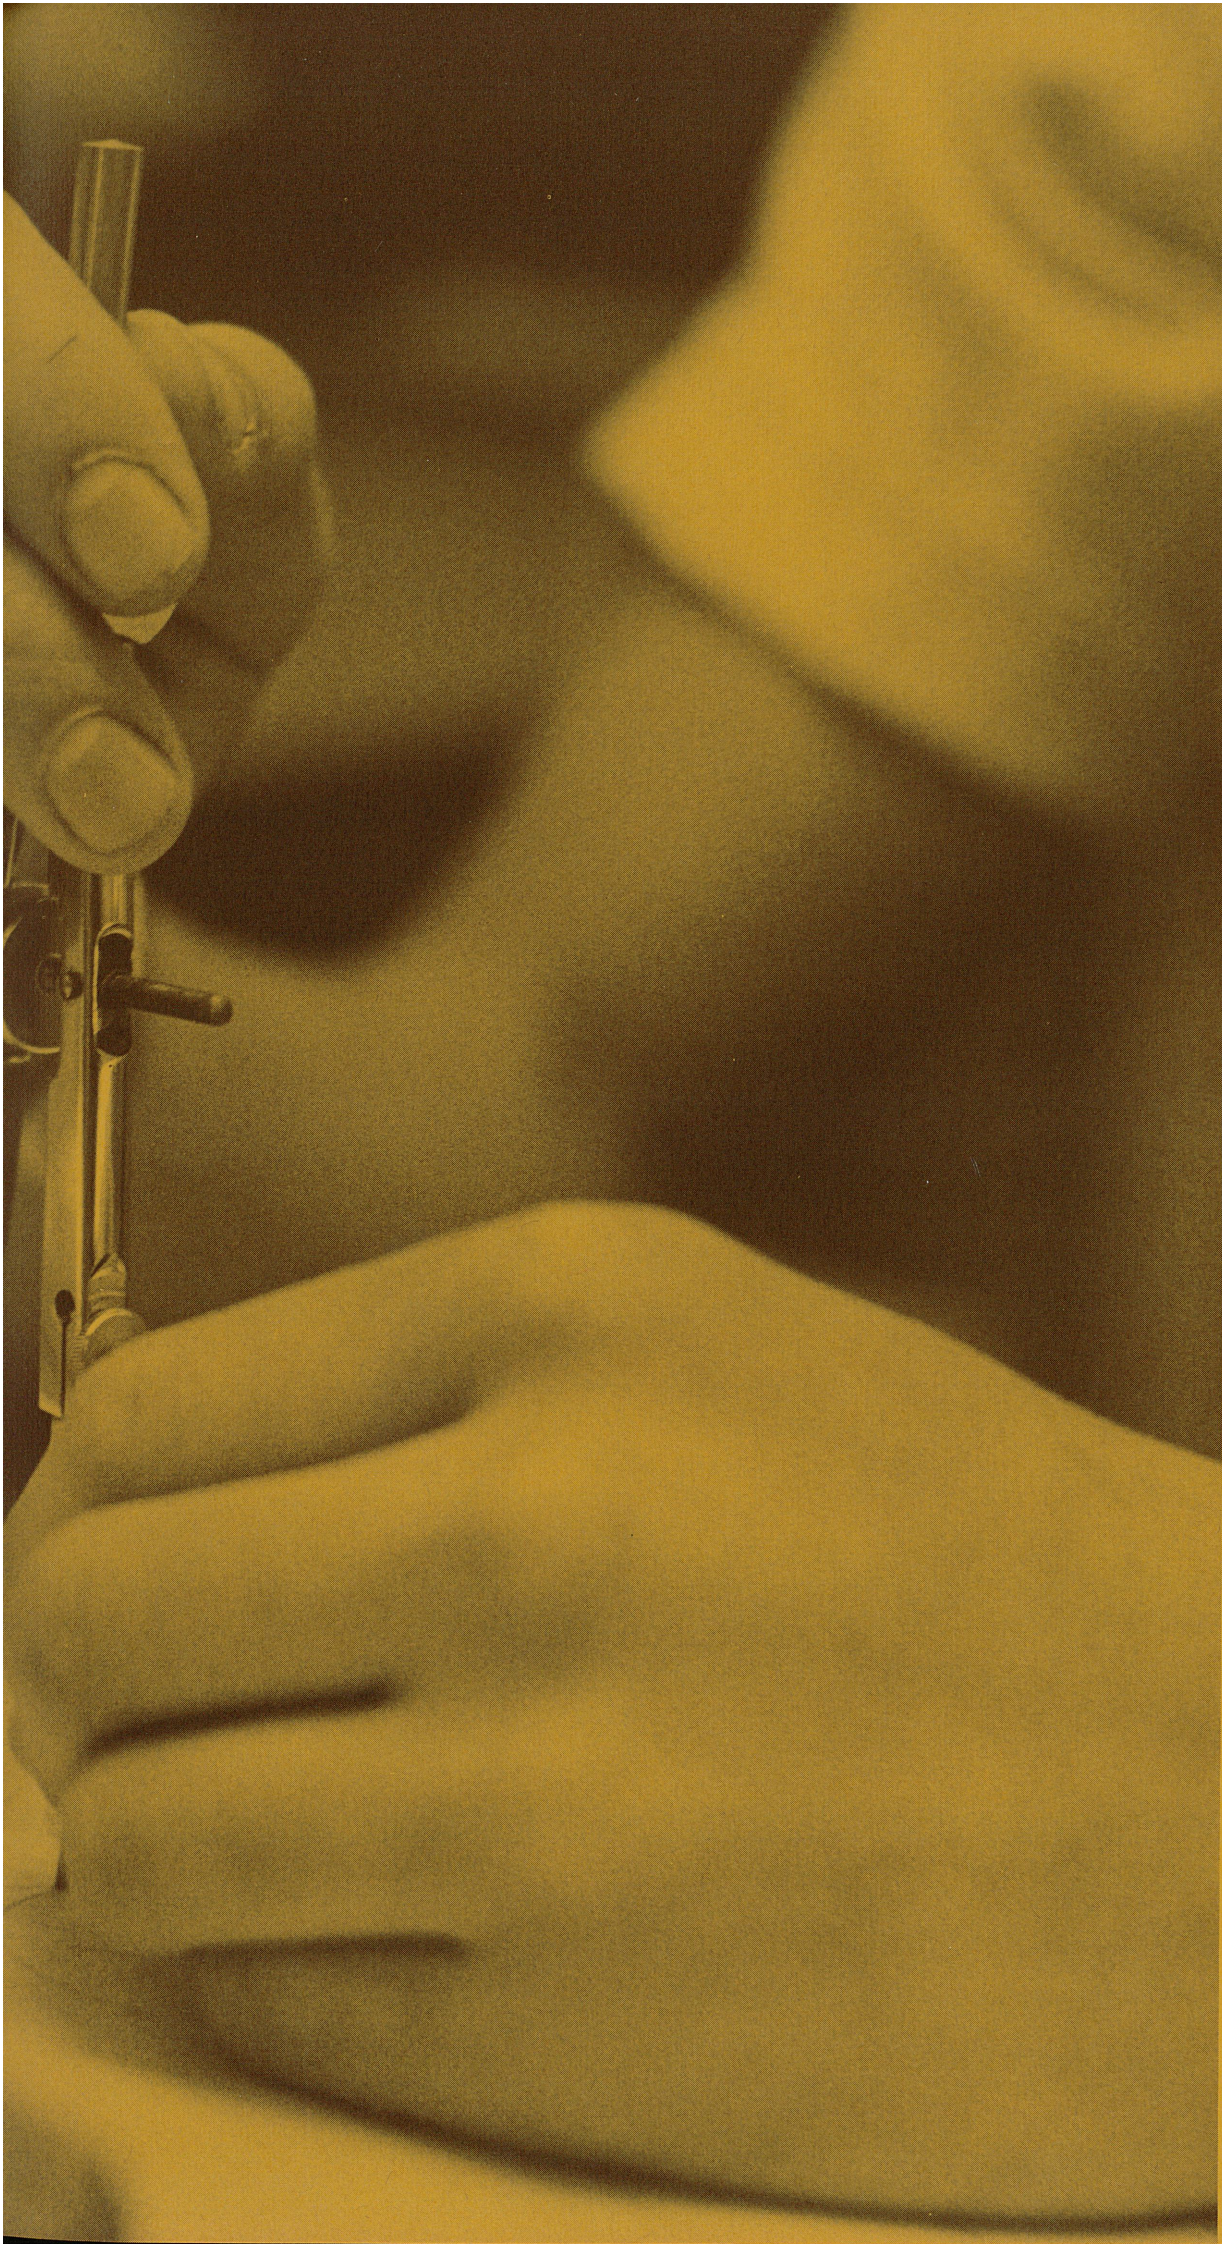

"... a microsecond of pure splendor."

"Play the cool role;
don't get flustered."

Dave Romagni

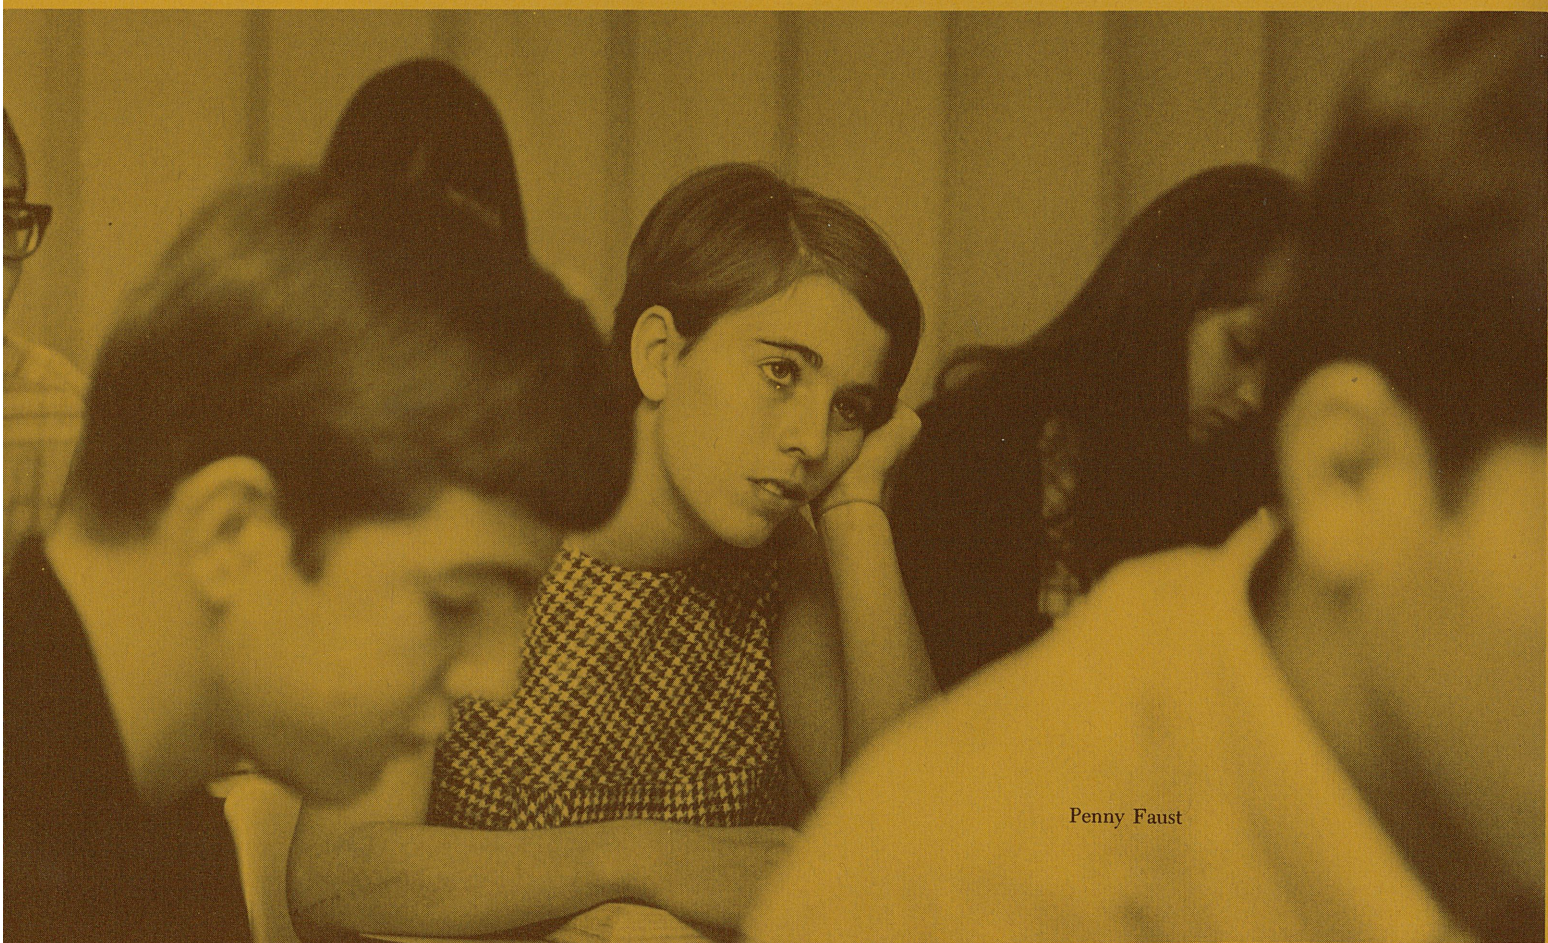

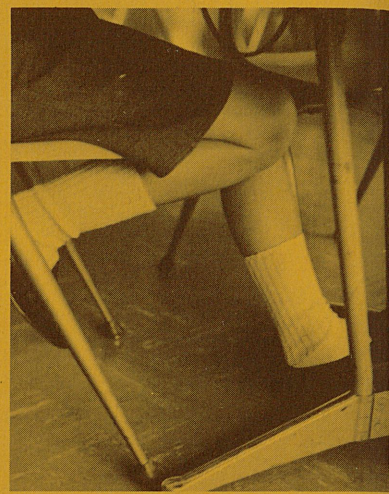

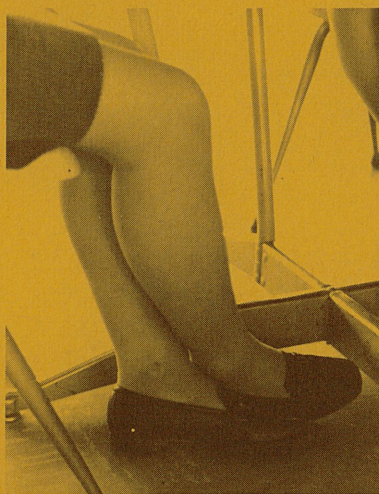

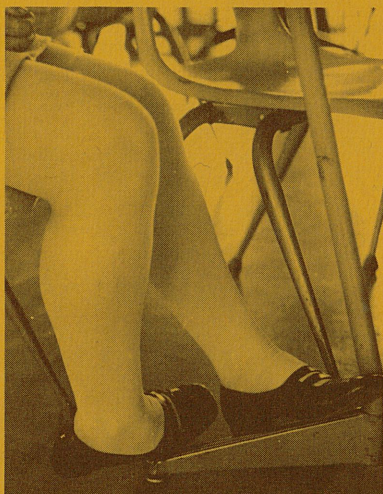

Alex Buccieri

"Loneliness is what
I feel sometimes.
I want to talk,
but no one talks
back. It's when you walk down the hall
and no one smiles."

"I feel small. Those teachers look ten feet tall when you are in the wrong."

Penny Faust

"A feeling of being unwanted which you only make for yourself."

Monica Waros

Ron Wygonik

"I always like to goof off
but I know when I have to get down to work."

Bernie Colantonio

"Some days I'm so glad the day is over."

Sterling Lewis

Shirley Bartlebaugh

Kathy Pison

Margie Felix

"Study halls — I study,
I hate homework."

Donna McCutcheon

"Happiness is a rapidly fleeting emotion."

Carol Maffeo

The individual is one . . . he is unique.

He possesses certain characteristics.

He has his own set personality.

He has his own ideas and is expected to express them.

In his own small way, he contributes to the group — his school, his clubs,
his community.

Although he is one, he exemplifies many.

He is a person who represents his school no matter where he is.

Without the individual there is no group . . .

“Sometimes we have a feeling of being unwanted which we only make for ourselves.”

Custodians, Secretaries, and Cleaning Women —
 The war against muddy feet, broken radiators,
 and stacks of paper confront us each day.
 Armed with push brooms, wrenches,
 and typewriters.
 We attack our foes — dust,
 stubborn pipes, and various paper forms.
 Exhausting, tedious hours ensue,
 but it's worth it.
 We have won the battle.
 Kiski is once more free — cleanliness
 and order prevail — until tomorrow.

D.A.R., National Merit, Outstanding Teenagers we give awards to deserving seniors. We look on with pride as they accept their honors. We are proud because they are our friends and our classmates. And through these awards we hope to stimulate not only the recipients, but also the onlookers, that we all might strive to reach our goals. We hope this will be the beginning of years of success for them — and for us all.

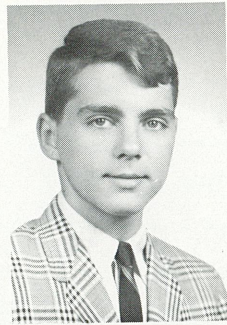

Paula Mastrangelo

I am a senior—
The "K" in Kiski
This is my year, a year filled to the brim with experiences.

The bus rounds the curve and heads into the sun . . . Everything seems the same (except for the bumps in the road now under construction). Exchanging schedules with hopes of finding similarities. We fill out all nine copies of our schedules that just have to be changed. We trail down to Mr. Mintus' office—no one waits until Friday. One day of newness, then all becomes routine
. . . Becoming familiar with the senior teacher's idiosyncrasies—Miss Gregory's,
"Don't get shook, kiddies!" Mr. Nick's,
"How's my sweetheart today?" Mrs Lace's, "Girls!" Senior Class meeting—not the usual pep talk, but a challenge for the Class of '69 to fulfill . . .

The curtain is stuck for the first pep assembly, but our spirit is taken outdoors. The first home game and no seats! The top men on that field are our classmates—not only a name, but someone we grew up with. Mid-ear sideburns and pleated pantdresses become prevalent. Pep assemblies move back inside—How come we didn't get the balcony? Always last. When we were sophomores we were last, when we were juniors we were last, and now we are seniors, and we're still last! If Mr. Bart would stop cheering maybe we could be heard . . . I have finally gotten a pass from my homeroom teacher, but there is still Mr. Gatto . . . He's always there! Campaign Week—no one does homework, all that campaigning, running through Vandergrift in all that rain.

An all-out campaign for senior class officers. Badges and lollipops, parades and fortune cookies—and balloons! A Grand SLAM victory for the S.T.U.D. (Students Together Under Democracy) Party. Back to normality after the election. Morning meditation—when we cram for our economics test. We take German III and French IV, but we still don't know grammar. We don't know a thing that's going on in Trig class, but we sit there and act like we do. We come to school at 8:00 in the morning and we stay until 6:30—soon we'll be expected to stay all night! Sitting in the auditorium for Senior Class play tryouts, waiting for a second reading—maybe. Miss Klingensmith makes the decision. "For the next seven weeks Miss Kling has my heart and soul."

Campaign time and we confiscate political paraphernalia for our annual debates—Sometimes we wonder how much good they do . . . It's obvious when the Varsity jackets arrive. The guys live in them, but they really look sharp. Wearing the Big "K" is an honor. The weather for Homecoming leaves much to be desired. The drizzle doesn't stop until Carole Maffeo, the "Sweetheart of Kiski High", is crowned. We smile, we cry, it's our Homecoming. Gold mums—they set us apart from the crowd. The Cavaliers don't let us down. Another win . . . Everyone piled into buses—students, faculty, parents—to see the "Big Bad Cavaliers" defeat Connellsville. It wasn't a great victory—it was the victory. Music in the cafeteria! After three long years of effort we get to eat our lunch to records. The Supremes, Temptations . . .

How are we expected to sell pillows after football season is over! At least we got our cookies before Christmas. Pep Day — our spontaneous reaction of enthusiasm was obvious as we bounded off our busses and became a part of Big K spirit. Fifth period — the Senior Class breaks loose with a chain reaction of spirit — it never ended. We still believe!!! Our last Christmas assembly — but what an assembly! And the bomb scare — was that ever fun! An extra long Christmas vacation — we didn't want to come back to all those tests. I never wrote so many essay answers in all my life! Announcements — someone was always forgetting his money. Our real prestige of being seniors showed through in our exemption from hall passes.

We find even in Kiski there is room for change — guys get longer side burns and girls wear shorter skirts . . . Boy, it seems like we're always waiting for vacations and never have them. "These are your last four months; make the most of them." And we plan to do just that! You'd think by the end of the year the senior teachers would forget about hall passes, but not Mr. Eckman. Then, there are those research papers. Picking your subject is one thing, but finding the material is another. That desperately needed book is never there . . . We seniors in the arts building really feel out of it. We can't even use our lockers without treading clear across the school campus. In February there was the National Honor Society Induction. Some of us finally make it.

"Big Brother" is watching and the rest of 1984. Who can ever forget Tammy the little old lady? Psychedelic dance — another Kiski st — complete with strobe lighting and "The Ithicas." What a way to start spring vacation? Being measured for caps and gowns makes us realize how close we are to graduation. We dared to break the rules, but somehow we always had to pay — with a week or so of D.T. Some of us fell in love and planned for future together. Others realized that our relationships weren't going to work out and called it quits. . . . It wasn't fun and games. There were tragedies that scarred our spirits.

Our ripple tank experiments were supposed to show us different properties of waves, but we practically blew our minds looking at all those "psychedelic" waves. The Kittanning basketball game was our last game — most of us didn't realize it until it was over. Half time — in the dark gym with lighted batons. The majorettes captivated the entire audience. We finally received that long awaited letter of acceptance. Security plus! Now we can start preparing for our future. We're all looking for summer jobs. "I doubt if there's enough for everyone." The school wants our opinion of the future curriculum — what do we care? We're not going to be here to enjoy it.

There's still snow on the ground and all the Spring Activities are starting already: Brigadoon, the Prom, and Spring Sports. No one believes that the gym will look like an immense ballroom, but we're determined. Paint all over our clothes, cutting classes, and talking. We really made our Senior Banquet a success — after all, it was our last informal get together. We really did it up right at our Senior Assembly! Chalk one up, finally! There's always the end of the year traffic jam when we Seniors get to drive to school. We are so cool, and the underclassmen know it, when we get to come at nine and leave at twelve. It was a hard struggle — an uphill fight, but we finally made it!

Big enough to look down on the Sophomores
but always respectful of the Seniors.
We're a little more established than last year and it looks it!

There is a new group of teachers to break in, each one demanding a little more than we expect to give.

The first day we stared at new faces and at candles.
"What's yours doin'?" "I don't know, it's just burnin'!"

We're always late for Health Class no matter where we come from.

The long awaited arrival of the class rings, the fun and confusion of decorating for the Prom.
In the back of our minds we know that next year it will be "our" Prom.

SOPHOMORES

Our first day seems like a never-ending mass
of confusion:

Getting off the bus and wondering which direction to go.

Becoming familiar with the crowd from Allegheny, Vandergrift, and the Township.

Still loyal to our junior highs and yet gradually becoming united into one.

First gym class—wondering if we'll survive.
Staggering into the showers, then rushing to beat the minute bell.

First look into a microscope reveals only an eyelash.

Fears and frustrations multiply as we undertake the icy flagstone walk.

First assembly—no longer isolated but a full-pledged part.

GROUP . . .

The group . . .

What is it? Why is it formed?

What does it represent?

A group is a bunch of people on the patio
after lunch or the kids at the football game. It is friends talking in the hall or it is girls combing their hair in the restroom.

How does the group react when . . .

Miss Gregory scrapes her nails
on the blackboard?

the scheduled assembly runs overtime?
classes are excused to tour
the court house?

a disgusted teacher sends half
the class for late slips?

the last ornament is in place for the Christmas dance?

The group . . .

composed of individuals, united
in a cause,

brought together by friendship
and loyalty,

assembled for security,
organized to accomplish.

This is the group at Kiski

and this is what it experiences . . .

"The Big K band
makes me proud,
excited. I wish
I were part of it."

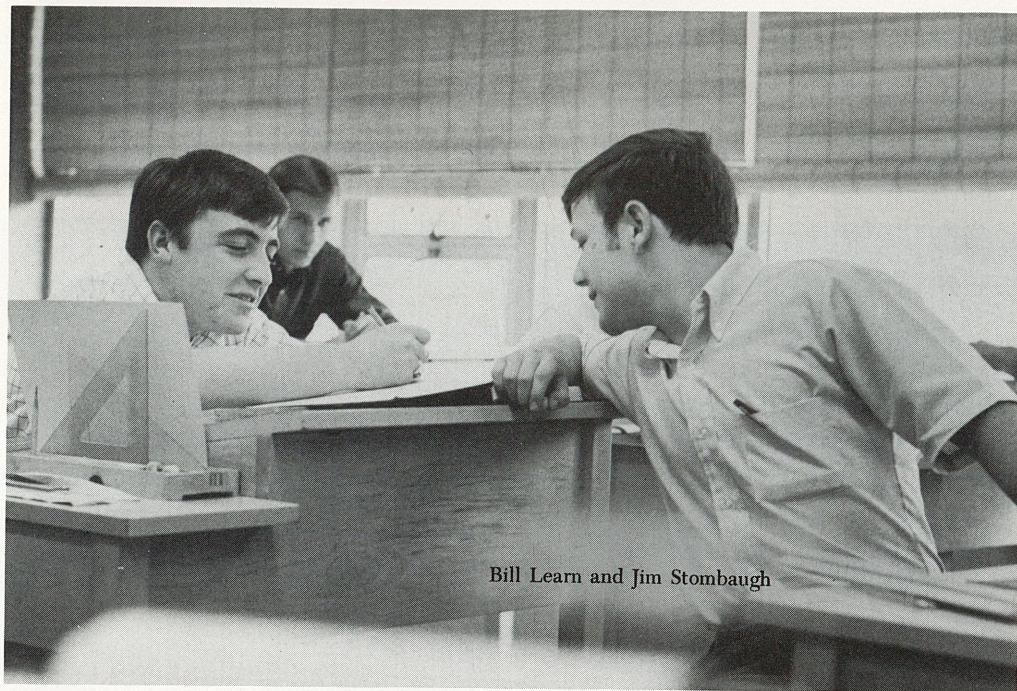

Joe Adamik and Carol Maffeo

"I am on top of the world, I'm happy, yet in a slight way sad, because I know in a short time it will all end."

Homecoming Court Row 1: Ruth Hartman, Kathy McDonald, Queen Carol Maffeo, Kathy Tueché, Row

2: Chris Crail, Elaine Roebuck, Kathy Horvat, Margaret Larson, Angie Michaels.

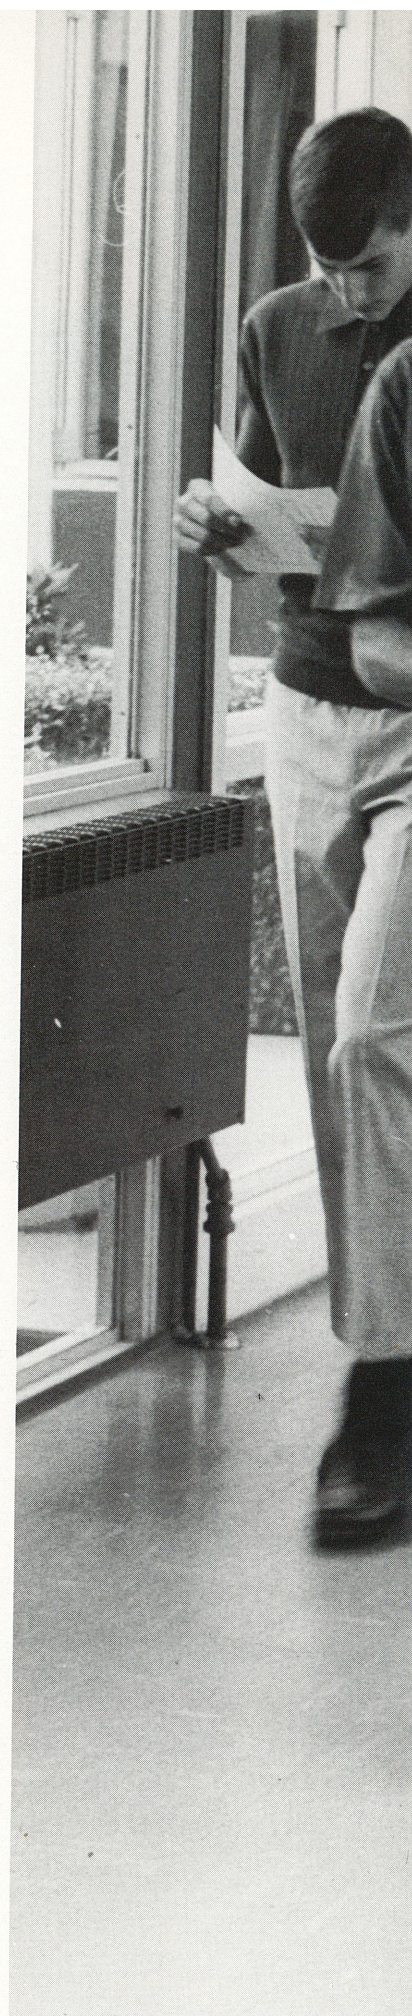

Bill Learn and Jim Stombaugh

"Sometimes I feel ready to take the whole world on by myself."

Don Antenucci
and Larry Popson

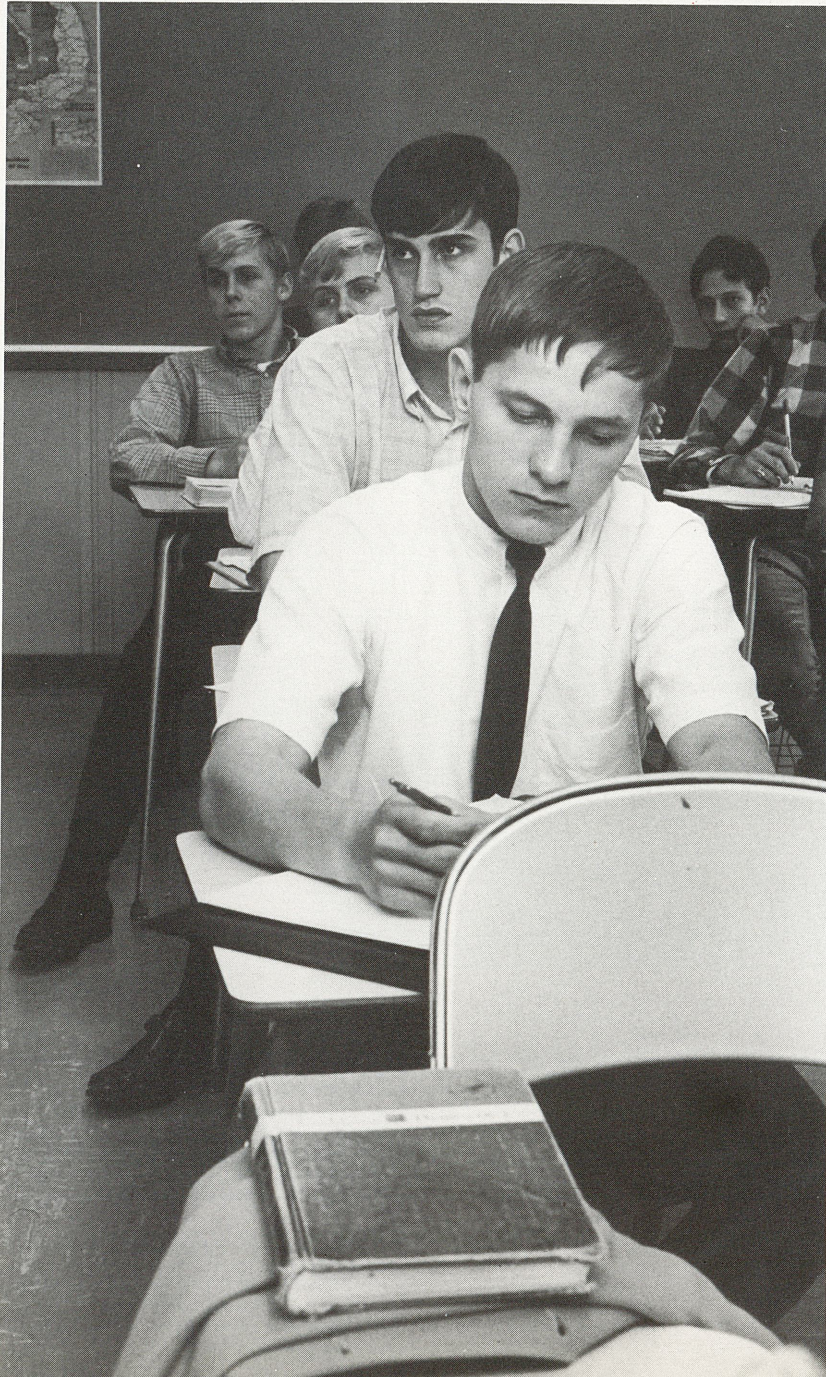

Mark McComb and Doug Dudzik

"By belonging to a group, I don't sacrifice any part of my individuality; I only 'share' it with others."

"Even though I'm part of a group I am an individual.

I have likes and dislikes, original ideas and a purpose different from anyone else."

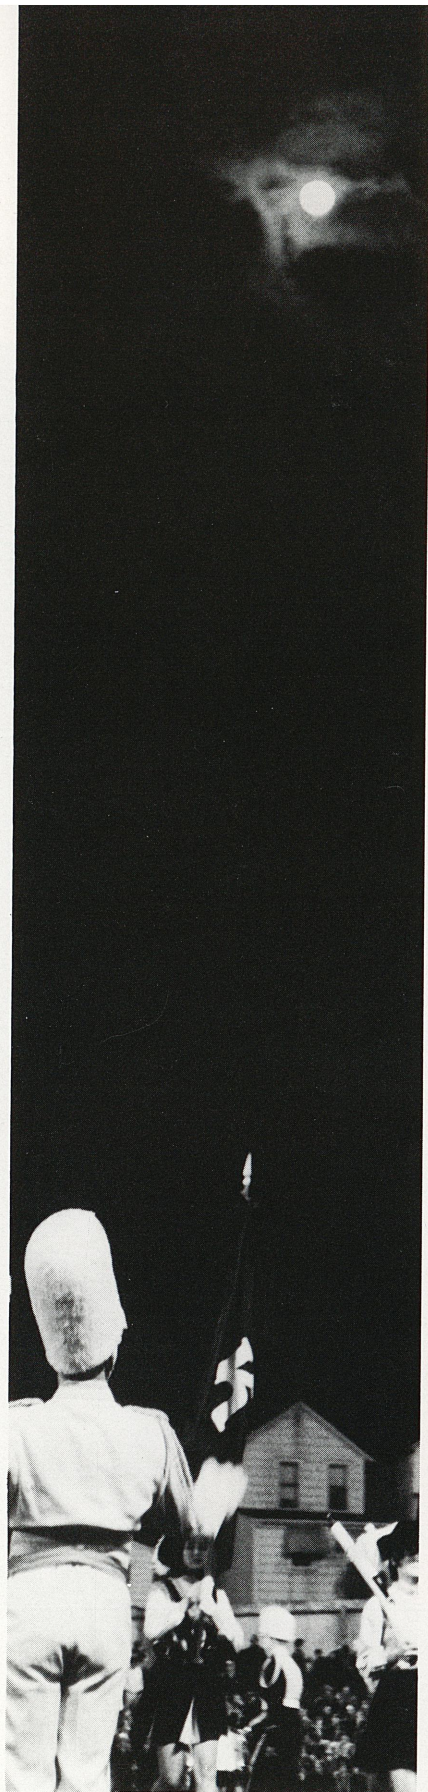

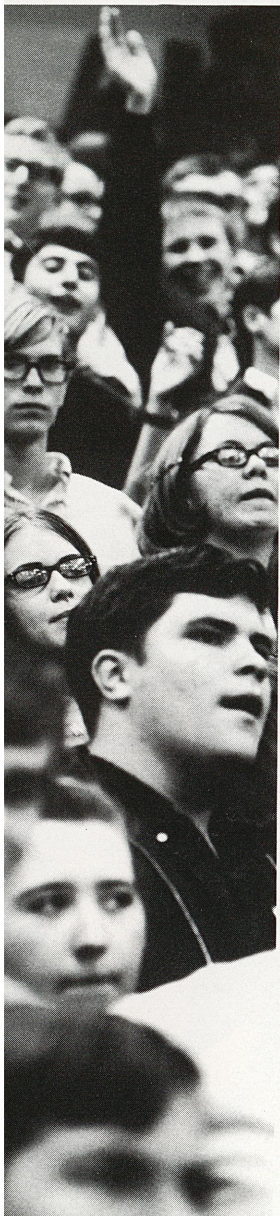

"A friend is one who has showed me many aspects of life."

"Love is an inner feeling expressed outwardly to another person."

"Life is loneliness
until you find yourself in the confusion."

"I feel as if I could reach out and touch something, yet I know it's not within my reach."

"Why doesn't he put me in offense
instead of that stupid so-and-so."

Kathy Pisone, Donna Hilty, Sharon Freedline

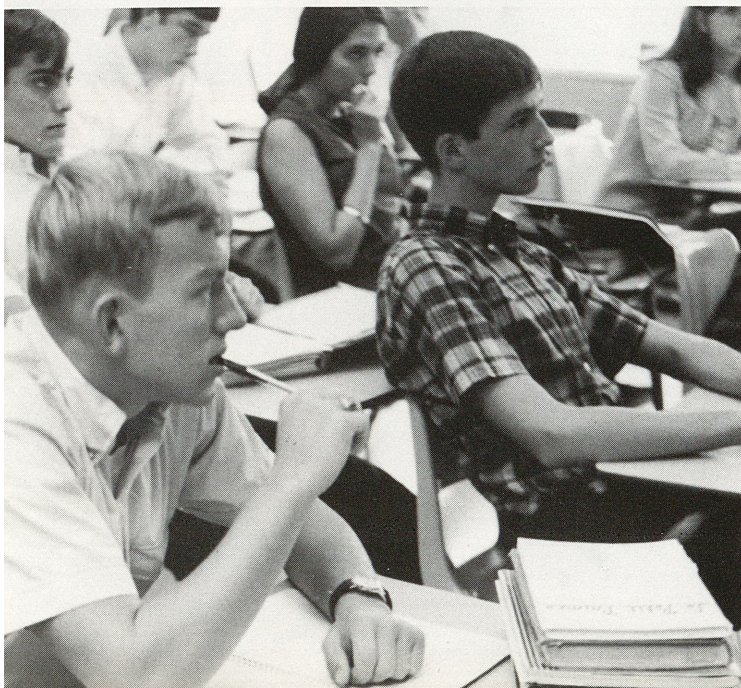

"Pride in your school comes naturally."

"I work hard to make something a success only to find I've fallen short."

"Happiness is when the whole world seems to be perfect.
Happiness is when a smile is sincere and a laugh is a true expression of emotion."

"I have to stay here so sometimes I count the minutes,
then worry about what I missed."

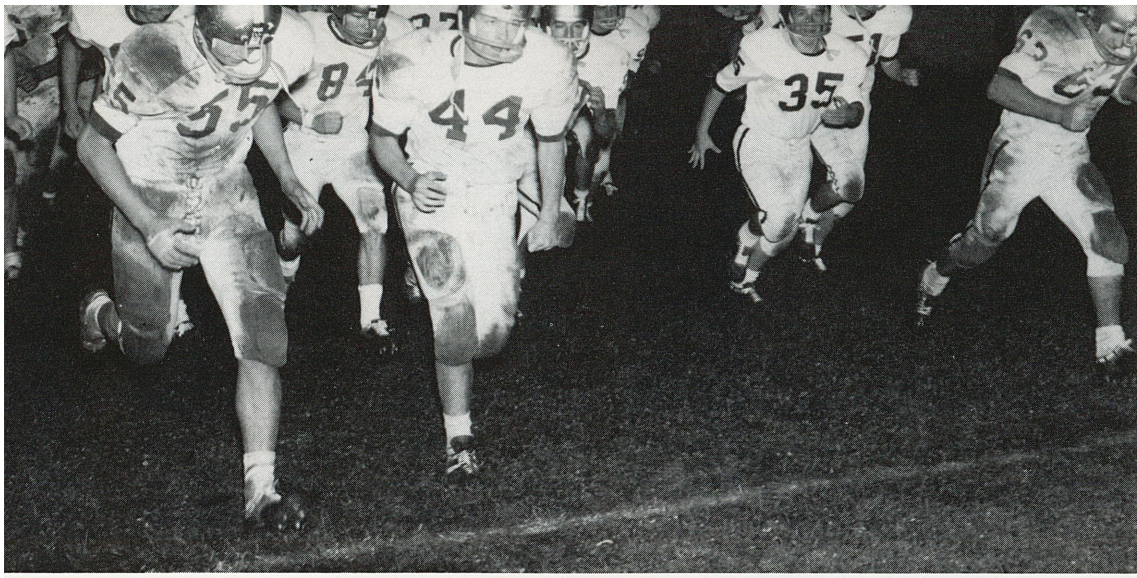

"Happiness is scoring a touchdown every time you carry the ball."

"The Big K spirit is sincere; I love it."

"Almost a first down.
That's okay; we'll
make it to Forbes
Field anyway."

"Marching onto that field I feel great as if everyone's watching me!"

"Happiness is the balance of unhappiness;
one doesn't exist without the other."

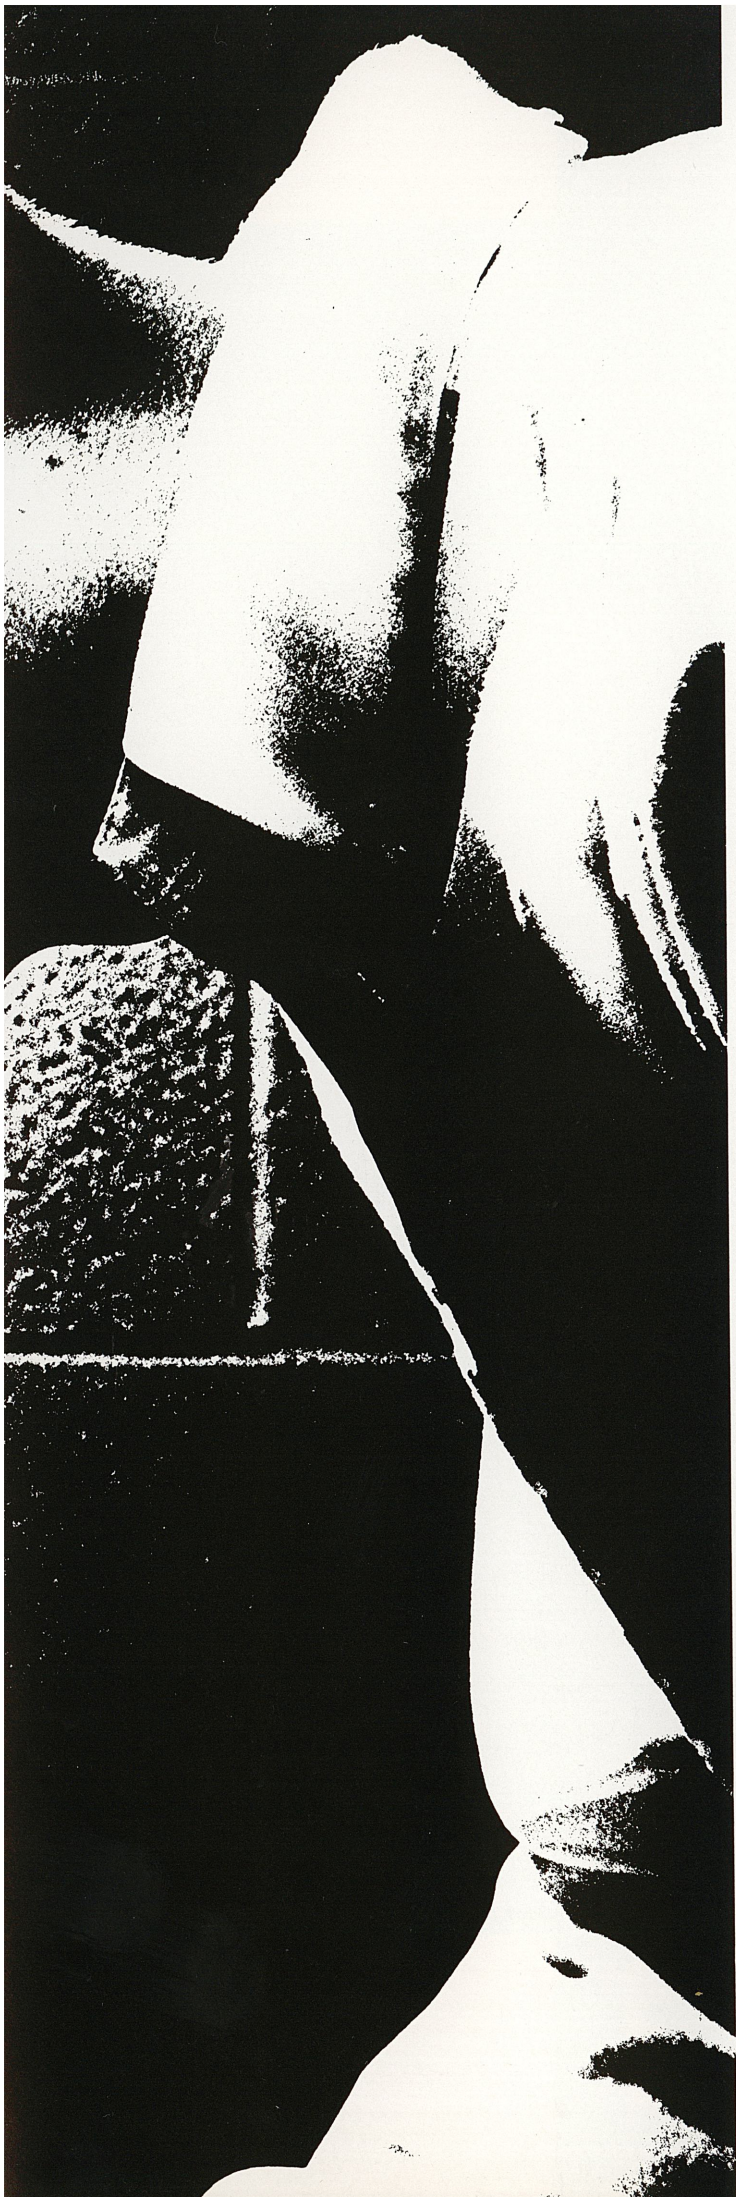

"Kiski is the school where I became an adult,
only because I was treated as one."

The group is unique,
It is composed of individuals with diverse ideas,
Yet linked together with a common interest.
Discussing the latest happenings,
Finding security in being with others,
Exchanging ideas,
Working together to complete a project,
Doing things together that separately
could not be done alone.
Experiencing the feeling of belonging —
Not just because you want to,
but because you are needed.
Organized social functions,
Engaging in fun-filled activities,
Making new friends,
Strengthening the bonds of old friendships . . .
Without a group there is no Kiski.

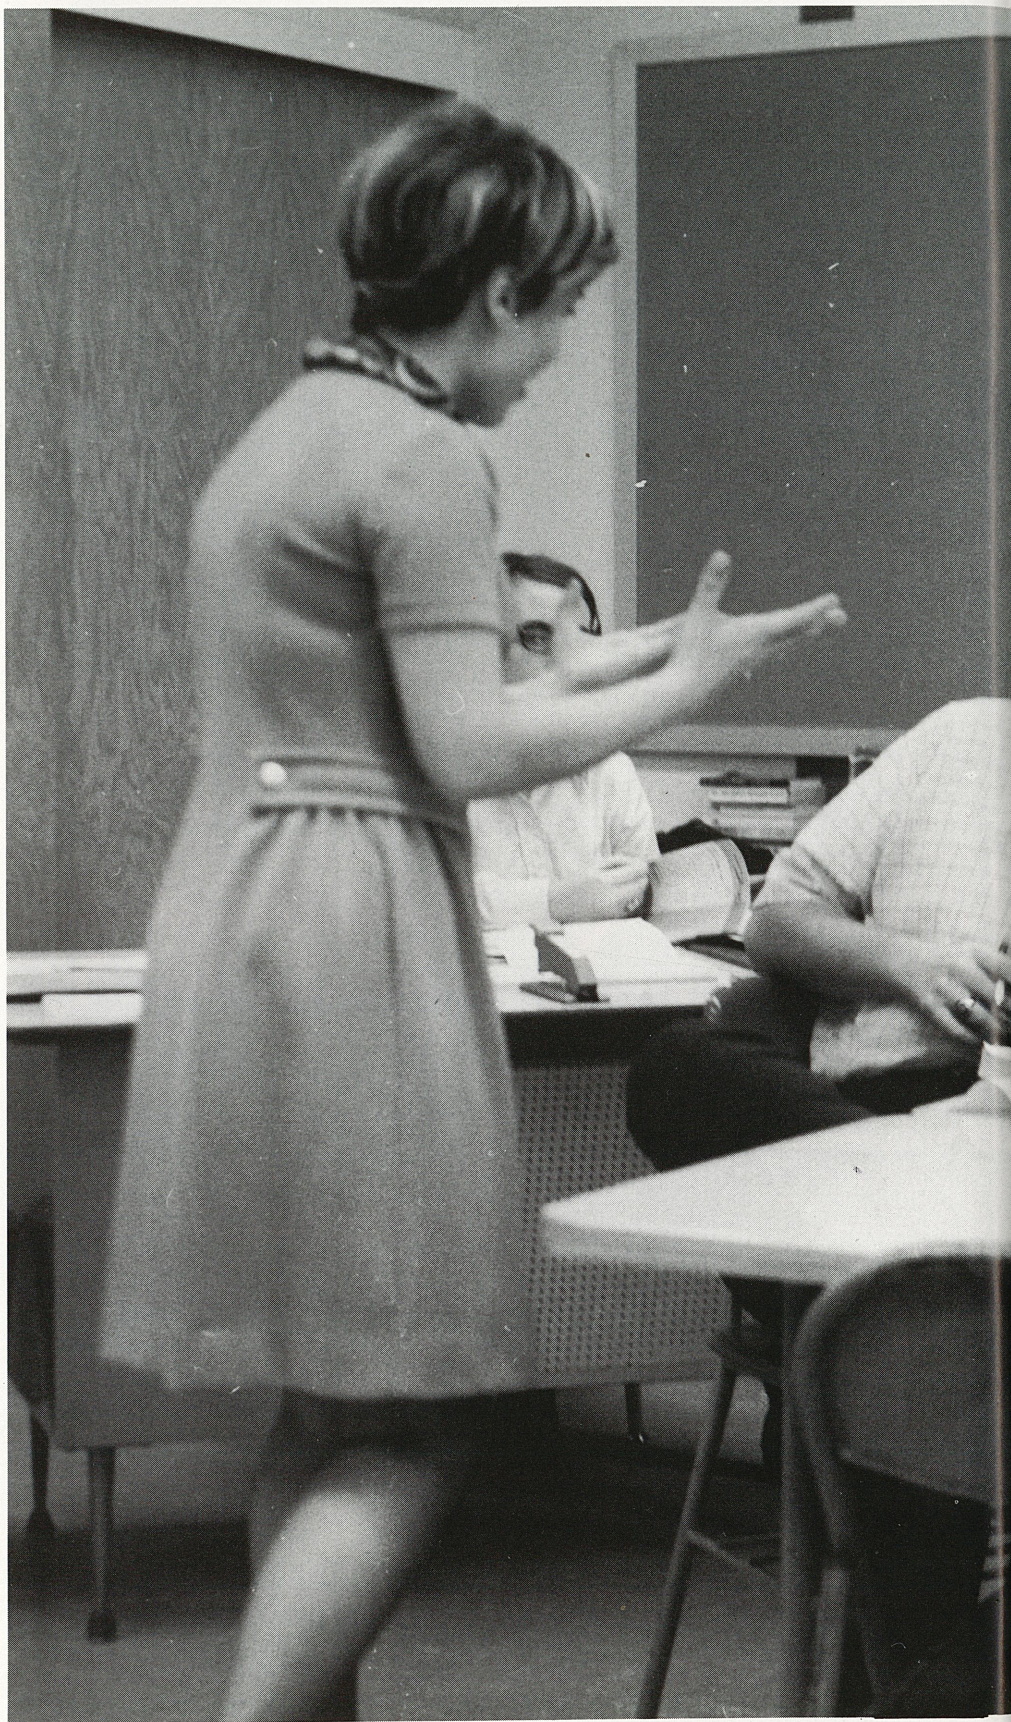

ACADEMIC

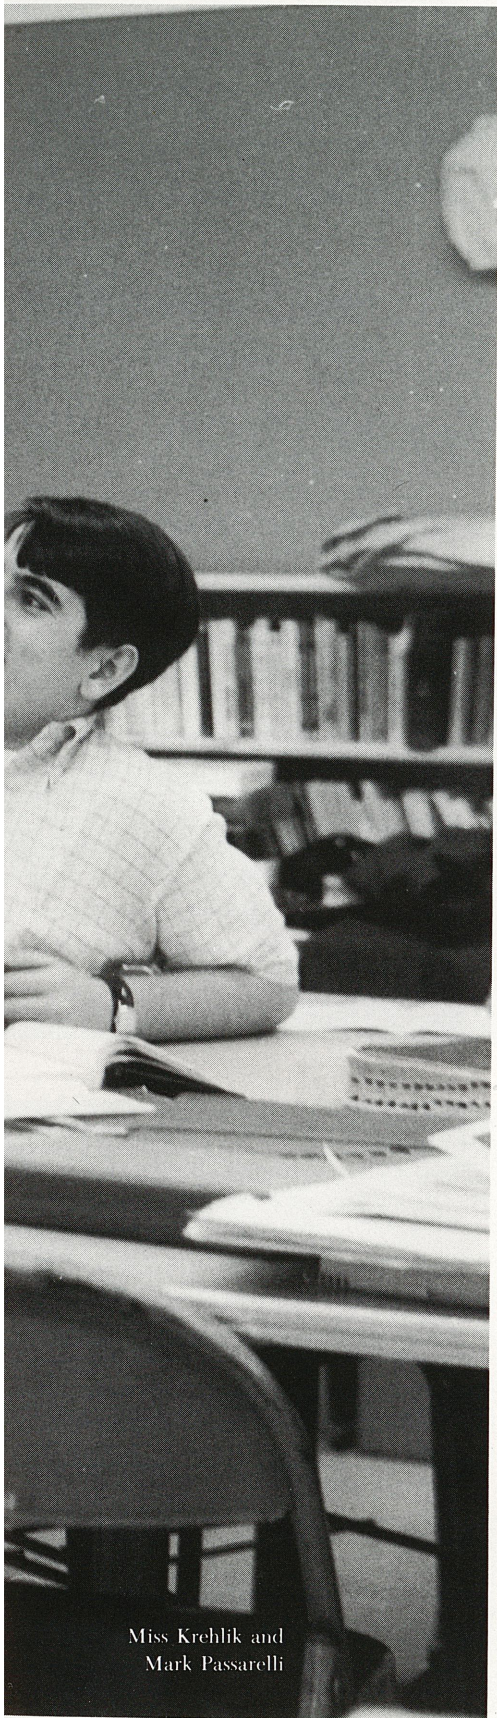

ENGLISH

Teachers explaining the proper use
of grammar,
Conveying the messages of Miller,
Gogel, Thurber to their pupils.
Students memorizing vocab words to increase the meaning of simple conversations,
Each adding his outlook to Religious
Lit. discussions . . . or each striving to bring out his true self in writing.

Becoming a part of Hamlet through class dramatizations.

All in the desire to unify people through literature and language.

Miss Krehlik and Mark Passarelli

Ruth Reinsel

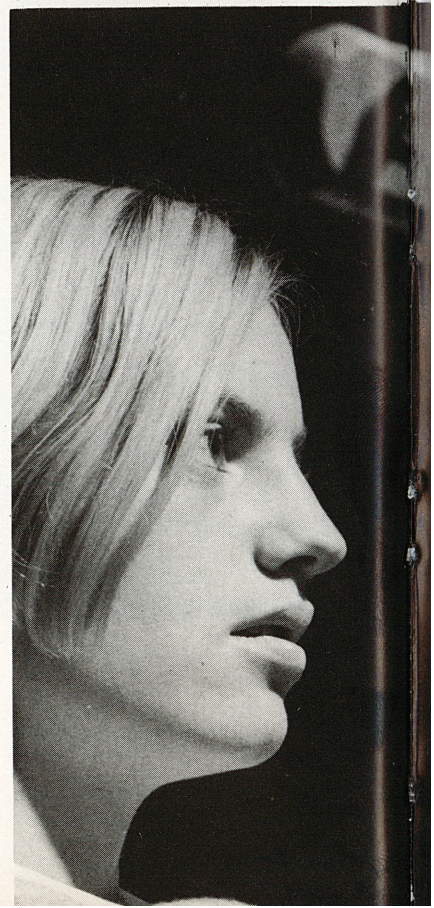

Alice Chermanskas

BUSINESS

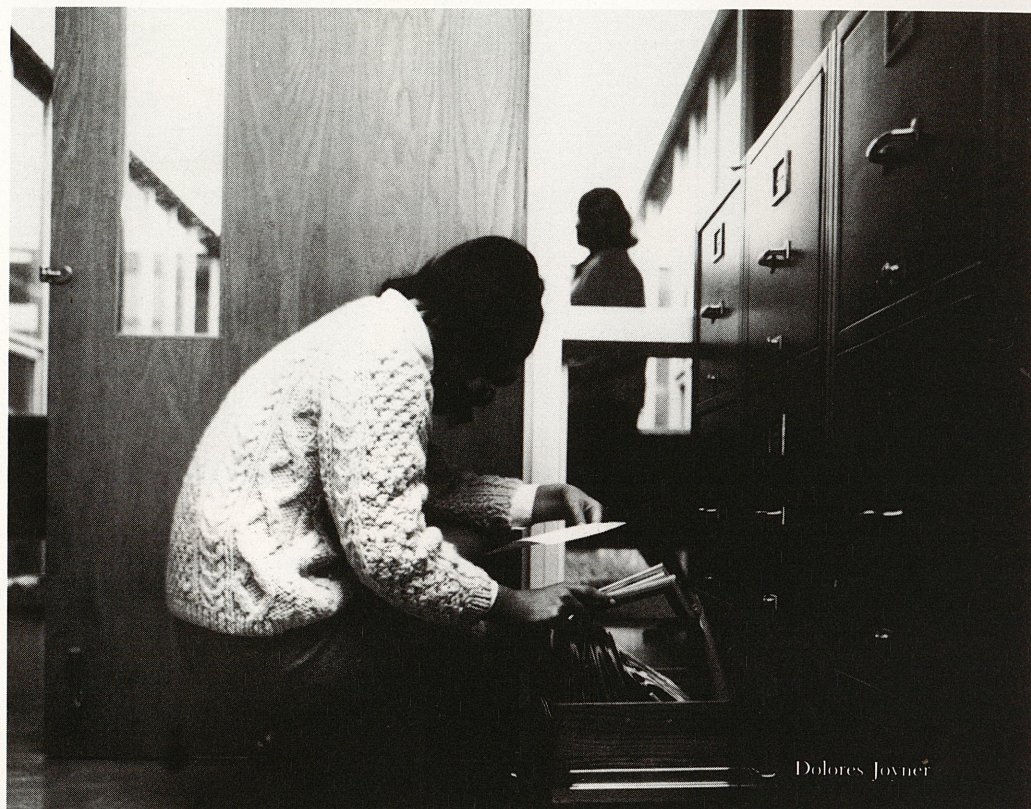

Memorizing endless columns of brief forms,
Learning three or four new principles
a night and finally applying these principles,
Slowly adapting to the business world.
Preparing endless reconciliation statements, Tracing a petty mistake in a bookkeeping project, Looking through drawers for a ruler or any straight edge.
Typing problem after problem,
letter after letter,
Being an apprentice secretary for some deserving teacher.
Office sounds represented by electric typewriters and ditto machines.
Teachers having only three short years to convert students into future business leaders.

MATH

Kathy McDonald

Dolores Joyner

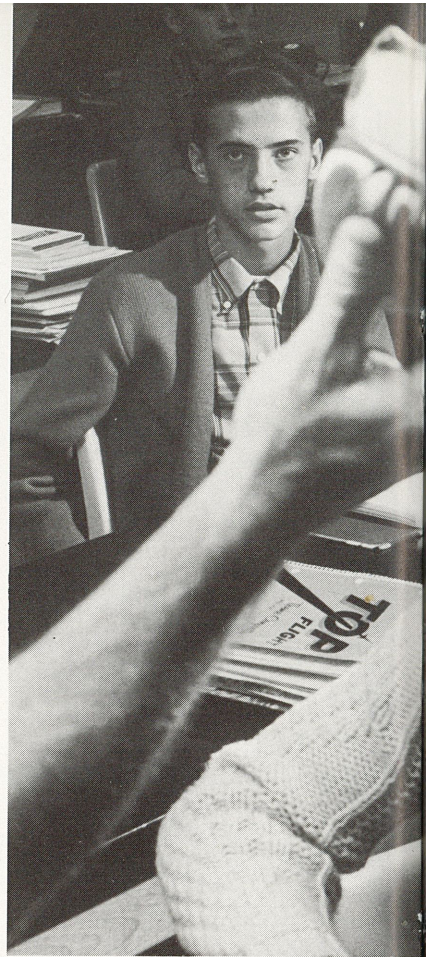

Betsy McCoy

Beginning with basics and advancing to the complex, Drawing geometric figures and trying to figure out proofs,
Mental exhaustion after algebra
special assignments,
Probing into the world
of trig functions,
Discovering that complicated
math induction can be explained
by the elementary use of dominoes, Working out problems on interest
and commission,
Increasing our knowledge and usage of numbers that we might be able to solve the problems of the future.

Angie Michaels

SCIENCE

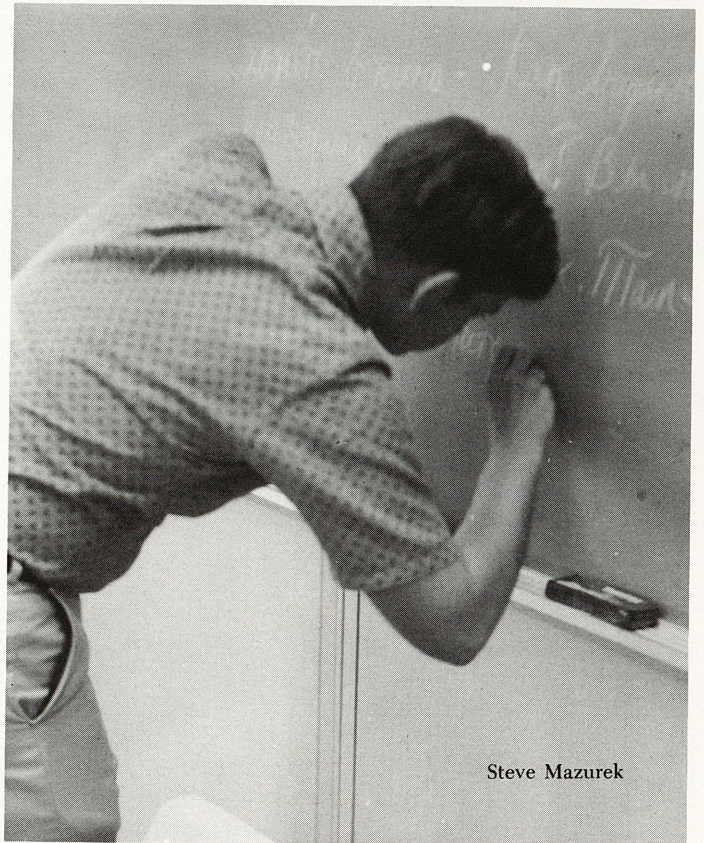

Finding the courage
to dissect a frog,
Exploring the wonders of the planet and animal worlds, Amateur chemists trying to hide the broken glass
of a test tube.
Astronomers studying
the celestial bodies, Remembering that first baffling trial with the stroboscope and discovering that the problems go
from bad to worse.
Teachers and students striving to unfold the phenomenon of life on our earth and in the world beyond.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Walking into class that first day
and not understanding a word, Listening to tapes and earnestly trying to grasp their meaning,
Unbelievable sessions in the lab,
Diligent repetition,
Fun in singing songs,
Reading Hannibal,
Translating poems,
Plodding through grammar,
Struggling to improve pronunciation,
Breaking the barriers of communication and working together for a deeper understanding of our world neighbors.

Steve Mazurek

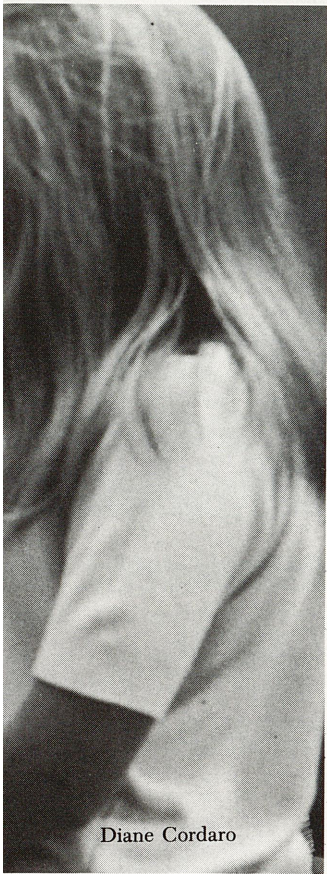

Mr. Richey

SOCIAL STUDIES

Trying to remember what the newscaster said,
 Locating Volgograd on a jumbled Russian map,
 Calling a friend for tonight's reading assignment
 while leafing through dog-eared pages.
 Packing facts, dates, and figures into sometimes uncomprehensive minds,
 Using the library every free second of the day doing a report for Mr. Hunter.
 Staying up late at night forming a discussion in your mind for tomorrow's psychology class.
 Sighing and striving for data for a seemingly impossible better world.
 Social studies is a study of the past,
 during the present, for the future.

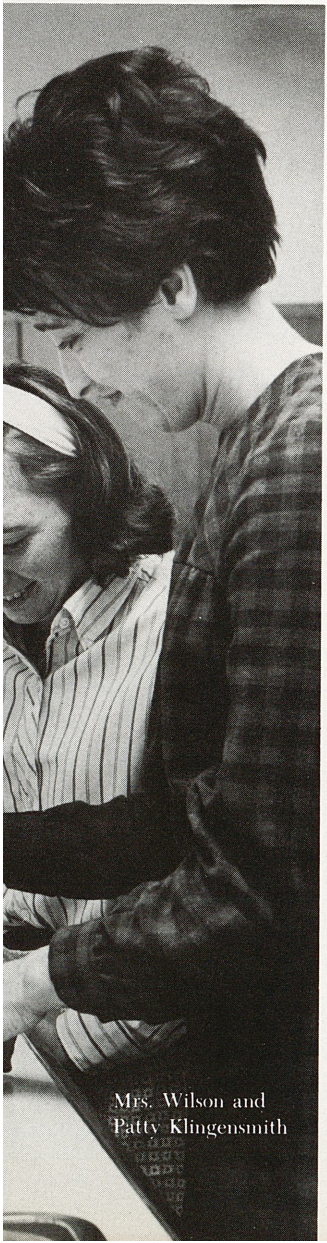

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Diane Cordaro

Bob Perri and
Ed Booker

Mrs. Wilson and Patty Klingensmith

Beginning the longest hour
with seemingly endless cal's, Testing and retesting to attain gold status,
Completing the grueling "circuit", Facing friends as foes on
the hockey field,
Running hard to beat
that determining second,
Perfecting gymnastic routines
with stubborn perseverance.
With renewed energy
students bound up to freezing showers.
Through physical education
students build sound bodies and develop clean sportsmanship.

PRACTICAL ARTS

Fingers fumbling with seams and zippers,
While more experienced hands
whip up pies and pastries.
Saws humming, hammers pounding . . .
Sounds from the shop where future craftsmen toil.
Unskilled drivers nervously easing their way into cramped parking spaces . . . and Future Rembrandts, after painstaking hours, display their masterpieces with pride.
Students improving their skills and logic in preparation for tomorrow's adult world.

ORGANIZATIONS

Jenks, L. Thompson, D. Marhefka, S. Woodrow. Not pictured, C. Crooks, P. Crooks.

It's the history of the year and this is what makes it:
 Make all the alterations on the dummy sheets not on the 3-R forms,
 But, sometimes the literary staff's wishes must be obeyed.
 It's easy to have not enough copy
 but when there is too much we're in trouble.
 Counting every single character
 time after time to be exact.
 Typing in triplicate is no fun,
 especially if there is a mistake.
 Erasing each sheet separately becomes a little ridiculous.
 Running from store to store
 soliciting ads — the business staff never lets us down — without them
 there would be no yearbook.
 Cooperation on everyone's part creates the Campus.

KISKIZETTE

As soon as we put one edition to bed
we have to start another one.

Editors are constantly assigning stories and asking for ideas for Pondi.

We always have to think ahead if we need pictures —
The photographers have to know.

Miss Nolf is satisfied when she says,
"Okay, block your story."

All that typing —
Then there's the never-ending job of writing heads and figuring fonts.

Writing cut lines — they have to be stories
in themselves.

Friday — delivery day — second period is spent in taking the paper to the homerooms or stuffing mailboxes.

Our business staff worked hard soliciting for ads —
they help keep the paper out of the red.

In March we had a freak-out — the first psychedelic dance at Kiski.

Our paper was a big success this year because everyone worked so hard and because we put to use the knowledge obtained at the Ohio University workshop.

QUILL AND SCROLL

What an honor to be chosen as a member of Quill and Scroll. Being in the upper third of our class wasn't the only factor. We had to work on the paper to become a member of this national organization.

Nothing can be heard except a chaotic mingling of voices.
Then Nancy calls the meeting to order.
Mary Lou gives her ever-interesting
treasurer's report,
And then the weekly meeting starts by reviewing the writings submitted
by interested persons,
And attempting to single out the creative from the not-so-creative.
We persistantly beg for original writings.
There are echoes of delight when discovering hidden talent in friends.
Judging artist's conceptions and inspirations, Singling out the best article in each section and presenting a prize.

BOOK CLUB

Meeting just once a month might not seem like much, but we also put in a lot of time during our free periods.

Promoting the bookstore by constantly offering savings in hopes of attracting more business.

Serving the students by supplying them with paperbacks ranging from Peanuts to Plato's Republic.

Here we try to arouse the students' interest in literature by offering the best selection in books.

LIBRARY AND STUDENT COUNCIL

Above Library 1st table: K. Stitt, D. Marencik, N. Kline. 2nd table: C. Glacken, D. Shedlock, M. Czuszak, B. George, 3rd table: R. Naccarato, M. LaPlace, H. Rattigan, T. We worked hard during the school year helping our classmates find material for reports and discussions.

It seemed as though we loaned a million Spanish records to Mrs. Pugliese's pupils.

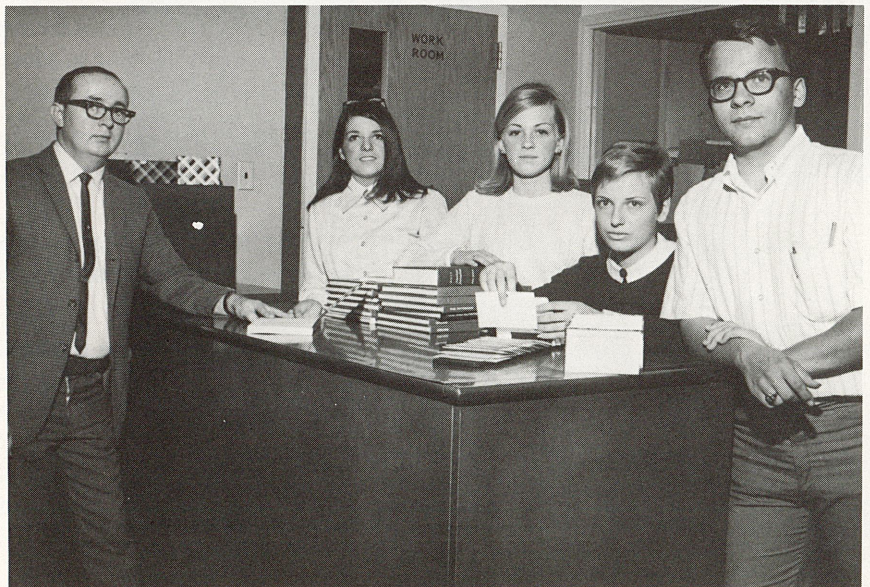

By selling Kiski Area tee-shirts, we boosted our treasury's balance.

Keeping the files up to date,

Typing out new book cards,

Changing the magazines and newspapers.

All of these tasks were part of our job to make the library at Kiski a useful place for its students.

Above: Mr. Kulas, Advisor; C. Maffeo, Pres.; K. McDonald, Treas.; P. Pirone, Sec.; J. Klingensmith, V. Pres.

We welcomed in the new members
and set out to do our job well:

Okaying dances, proposing
new reforms and amendments, Expressing the students' opinion
to the administration.

We met with other student councils and traded our thoughts
and ideas with each other.

A computer dance was discussed and planned —
the first in the history of Kiski.

We worked together to provide the students with an outlet through which they could express their ideas and become a part of our council.

So it is the month of February when the candidates for N.H.S. are selected.

"Wonder if I'll make it?"

My grades were up but the teachers don't like me."

But when the announcement comes —

"I don't believe it!"

We look forward to the candlelight induction.

"I hope someone out there gets the message I got."

Then there's our Christmas dance —

Always the problem of getting a quick response, but everything turns out great in the end.

We decorated during the basketball game and even on Saturday afternoon —

Climbing almost to the ceiling to tape those silver hoops to the windows.

We raised enough money to award two fellow students with a scholarship.

Through these activities we render leadership, scholarship, character, and service to the school.

TRI-HI-Y

Our canned-goods campaign
 was quite a success.
 Having guest speakers,
 Informative assemblies,
 We spread christianity beyond Kiski by sponsoring a Korean orphan.
 Wearing those costumes in Harrisburg — feeling like you're really from a foreign country.
 Sports Spectacular — we tried our hardest for that precious trophy!
 Our meetings — old business,
 new business,
 monkey business.
 Forming worthwhile projects
 for betterment of community, world and most of all
 the individual.

HI-Y

Hi-Y Officers: Sitting – J. McDivitt, Treas.; Standing – R. Kaminski, Pres.; J. Thomas, V. Pres.; J. Pennington, Sec.

We started our club off on the right foot by recruiting new members and electing our officers,
 Our president was always battling to keep down
 the noise and get started on the day's business.
 Reporting the minutes, collecting the dues . . .
 Shaping our club into a responsible group.
 We figured out new fund-raising projects —
 Hoping to help people in need.
 Planning the annual Easter assembly — locating
 a minister to explain the Christian ideals.
 The Sports Spectacular rolled around again and all our members got psyched up over the chance to be "No. 1"
 Despite all the chaos and clatter,
 We got our work accomplished.
 Our Hi-Y was more than just talking and fun . . .
 Through our services, we matured into trustworthy individuals.

HEALTH CAREERS

ah" and suddenly you're in the fast-paced world of nursing, coloring opportunities and requirements in the various fields,

Growing as individuals by working together.
We ask guest speakers to come to Kiski and broaden the scope in some hidden field of nursing.
Mrs. Martinisko orders films which add to our ever-increasing knowledge.

Devoting time to a demanding field and filling the gap of those who came before.
We visit nursing homes and hospitals which give us a premature look into our futures,
All work and strive for the scholarship in nursing which is given to some deserving senior.
The health room is our own little hospital in itself.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Reminiscent aromas of bygone days fill the Home Ec room
and permeate the hall as we bake homemade bread.
We earn money at our specialty — the bake sales.
Making all kinds of cookies and confections,
Planning a festive holiday table for the annual Christmas faculty tea,
We love to go on trips suited to our interests,
We looked forward to buying wool and to window
shopping in Pittsburgh.
We are glad for the chance to prepare ourselves for a most demanding career —
the future homemakers of America.

F.B.L.A.

We become familiar with the business world —
 preparing for tomorrow's future.
 We go to Valley High School for Fall Regional hoping we will gain something.
 We meet kids from other schools.
 Our annual Christmas campaign rolls around again—
 It just wouldn't be Christmas without selling all those candles!
 We take orders —
 After school we pack, and then, what a rush to deliver them!
 In F.B.L.A. we accomplish many things that not only benefit us
 but also others.

F.T.A.

Do we really want to become teachers?

Well, we're here to find out.

Student teachers tell it like it is,

They think they scare us,

but we're still sincere.

Tutoring a single person or teaching a whole class — both help us to realize the true responsibilities of a teacher.

Our voices quiver and our hands shake,

But we find out for ourselves.

Mr. Meighan always answers our questions with amusing remarks.

This only makes us more determined than ever to be Future Teachers of America.

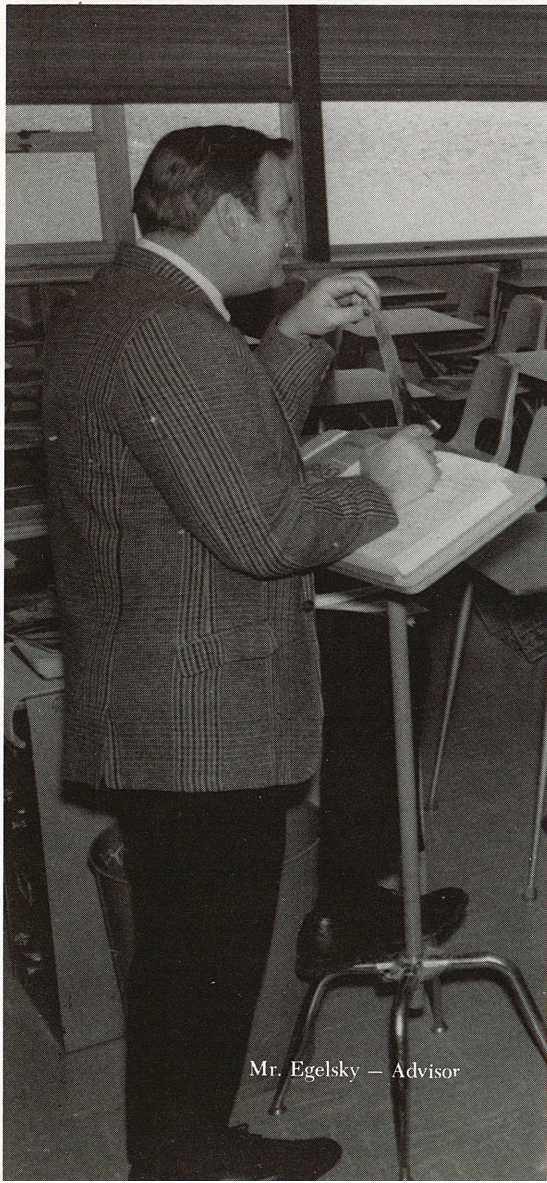

RUSSIAN CLUB

We broadened our understanding of Russian civilization through the study of their language.
 We did research to supplement our knowledge of the aspects in Russian life.
 Changing a bulletin board to depict the culture and beauty found in the Kremlin.
 Pulling together the language and culture to provide a keener insight toward human relations.

ASTRONOMY

E. C. Sliphers — “our hero” — he knows all about those little green men on Mars. Getting up at four in the morning to see the moon pass in front of three planets. So what if it happens only once in 1,000 years!

The redesigning of the school telescope — We ground the lens and we polished the mirrors.

And then there were our “Star Parties” — We pin-pointed Saturn, Venus, Jupiter, and double stars.

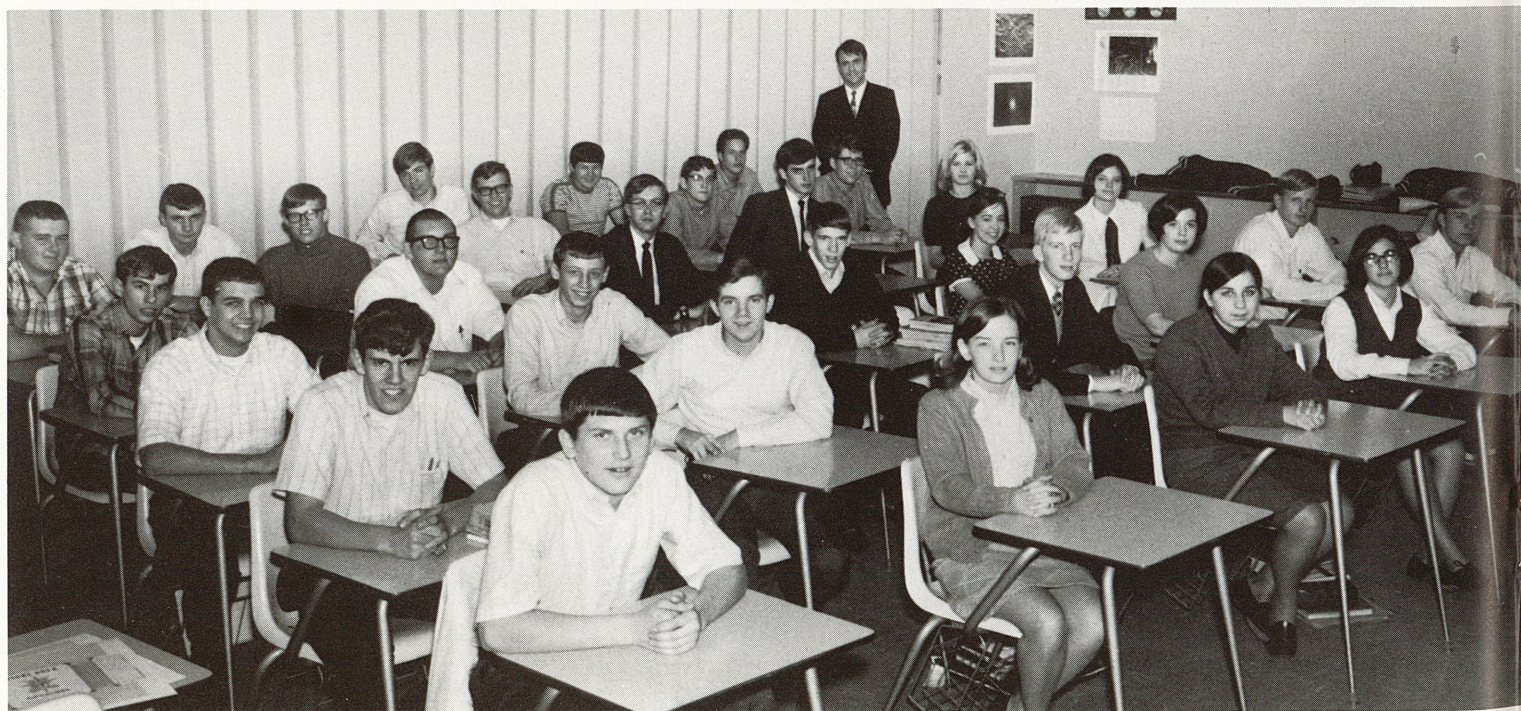

Our observations verified that the moon is not made out of green cheese. It's just a bunch of craters.

Sun spots are plentiful this year. So are rabbits according to Mr. Yajko.

The realm and wonder of the stars is now a little less complex.

AUDIO VISUAL STAGE CREW

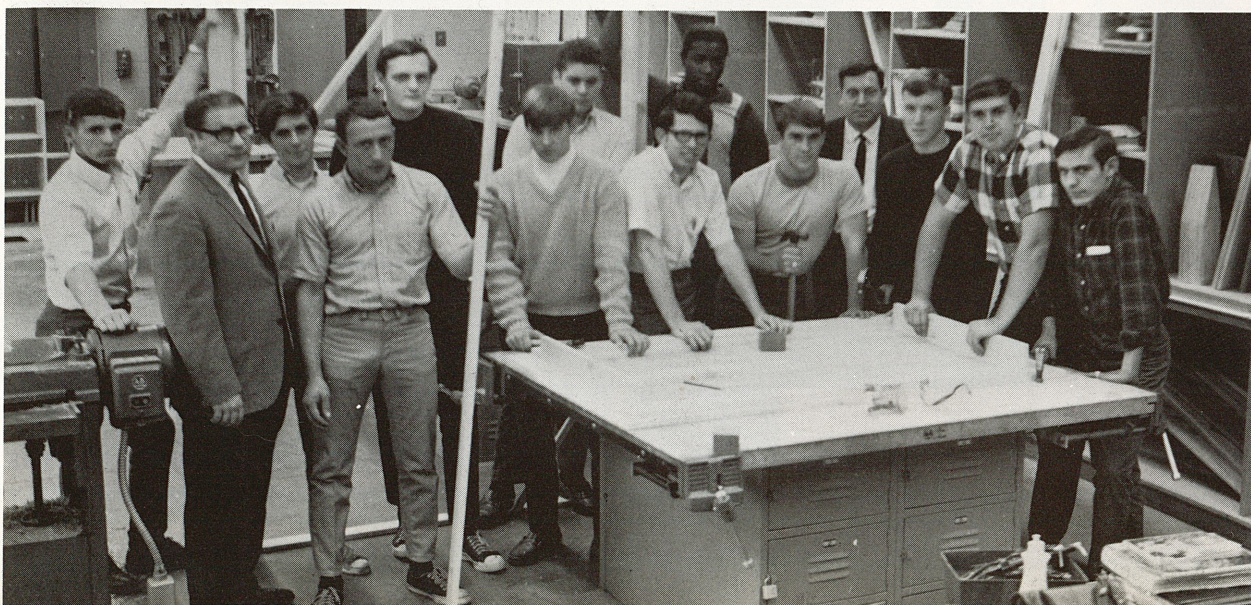

Measuring, sawing and remeasuring
How we hope it will fit!
Who would ever think that those
French doors were once a pile of lumber.
We made the shop a mess,
But we ended up with square windows,
sturdy flats and lots of left over wood.

We learn how to operate all those
"mixed-up" machines.
We even get to show the teachers how to use them — we can do something the teachers can't!
It's a feat to deliver our equipment
through those impassable halls.

FRENCH CLUB

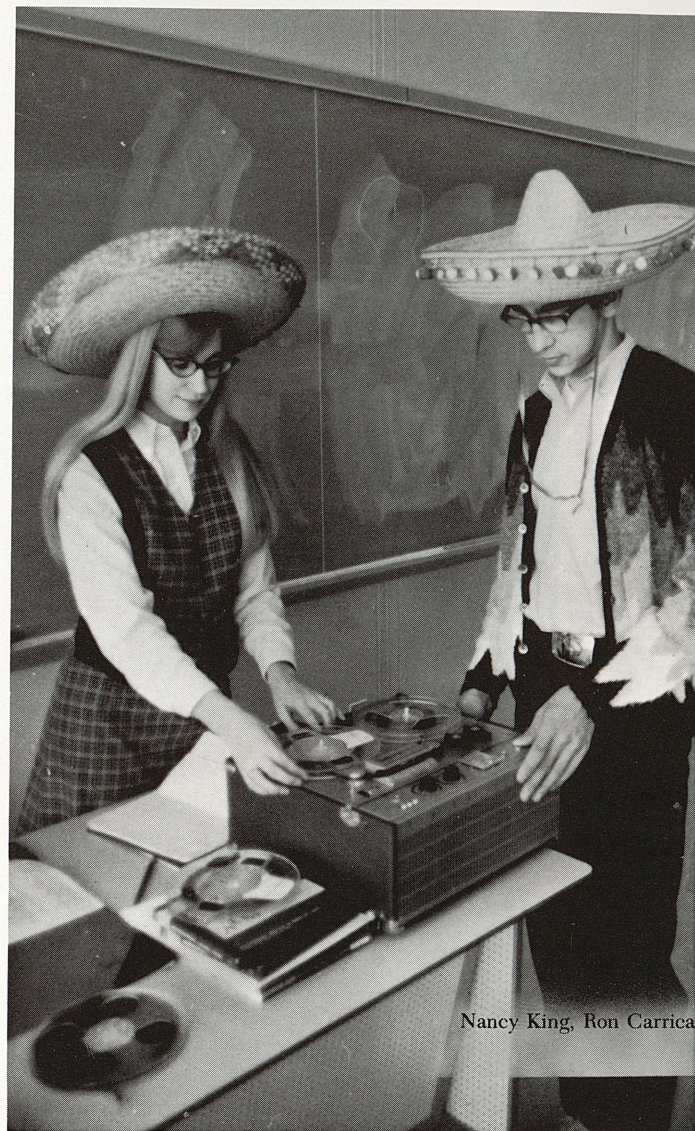

We sing songs in French (and sometimes in English),
 We look and learn from slides,
 We earned all that money and then couldn't decide how to spend it.
 Then, there were our plans for a possible field trip.
 Deciding how to decorate, French style, for different occasions and holidays,
 We set up committees that always seemed a little disorganized,
 Speakers from college or elsewhere gave us a better idea of what French really is.
 We designated funds for a French flag,
 The meetings when we spoke French were really something else.
 What a way to learn a language!

SPANISH CLUB

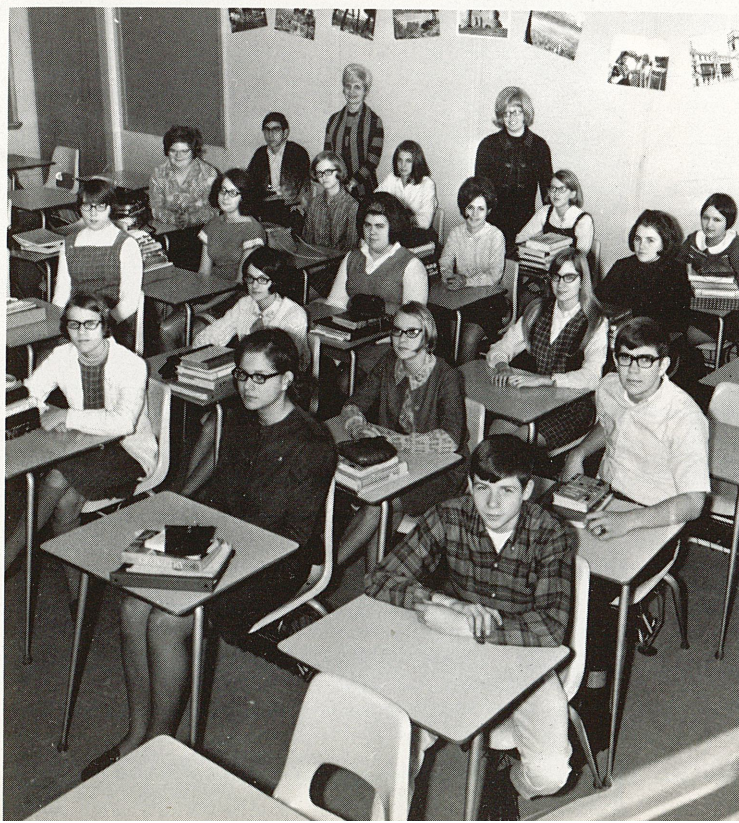

We are just getting organized — this is our first year.

All conversation is strictly Spanish, not a word of English can be heard.

Familiarizing ourselves even more with the language in hopes of someday being able to speak fluently.

Enriching our culture and insight by attending plays at the language festival. Here in our club we strive to learn more about Spanish people, their customs, and culture.

By studying them it helps us to have a clearer understanding of the Spanish language.

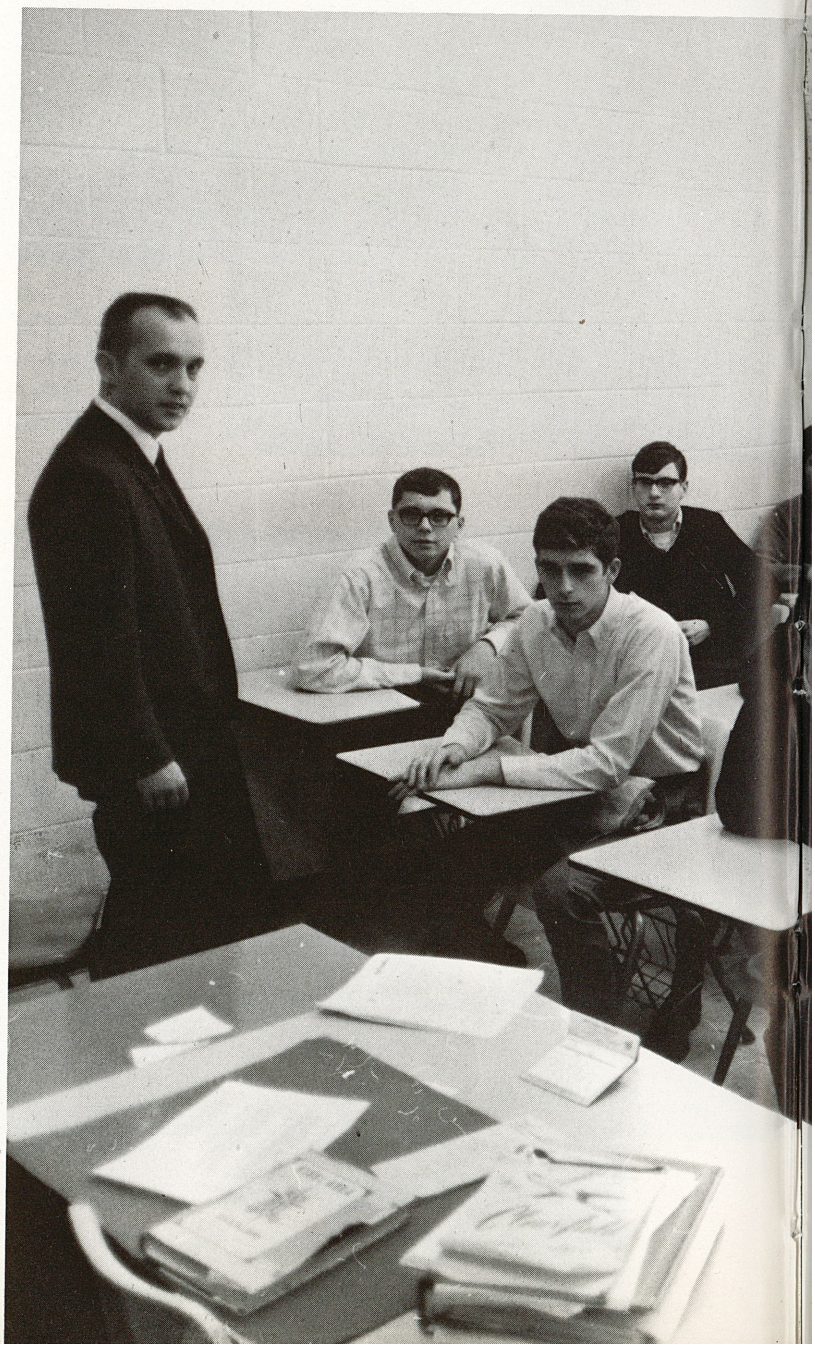

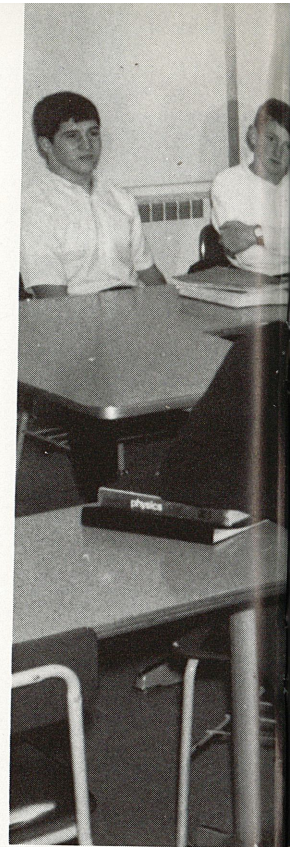

LEO CLUB

Lions International extended into Kiski daily.
 Giving a lot of time, energy, and devotion to the betterment of our school and the individual,
 We sell various things for charity,
 Providing the blind with seeing-eye dogs,
 wheel chairs, and canes.
 At graduation we try to relieve traffic jams.
 We've accomplished things as a group;
 As one they would have been impossible.

KEY CLUB

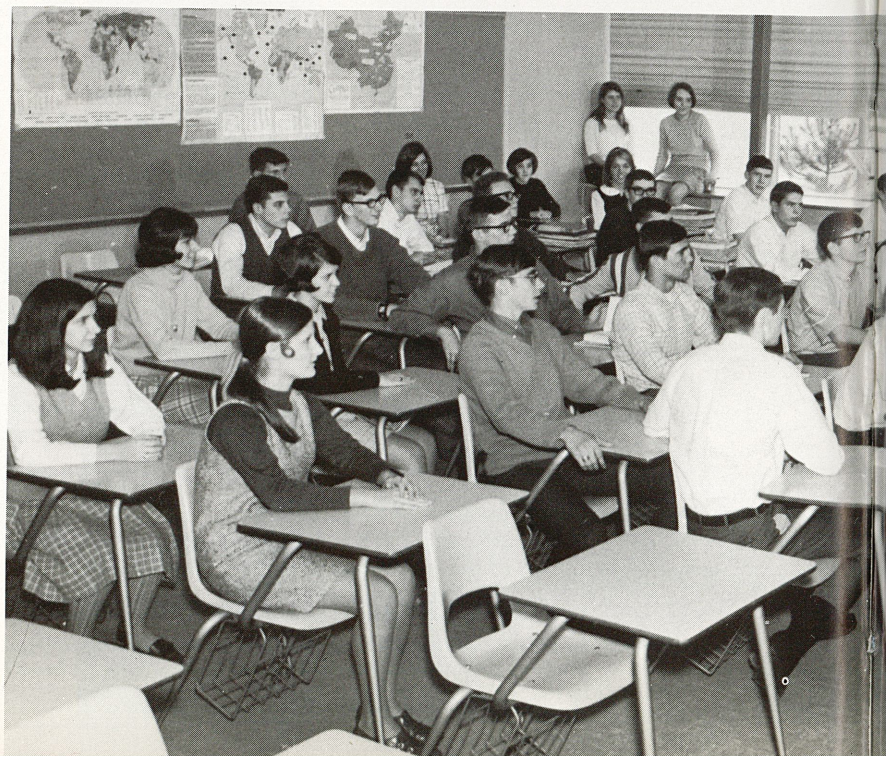

We are selling Kiski Area mugs to raise money. We need the funds for lots of things — like the State Convention in the Poconos and the cerebral palsy drive. Then we urged everyone to bring in clothes to help the children in Appalachia. Someone is always going to Kiwanis Club dinners. Through our efforts to help others we better ourselves.

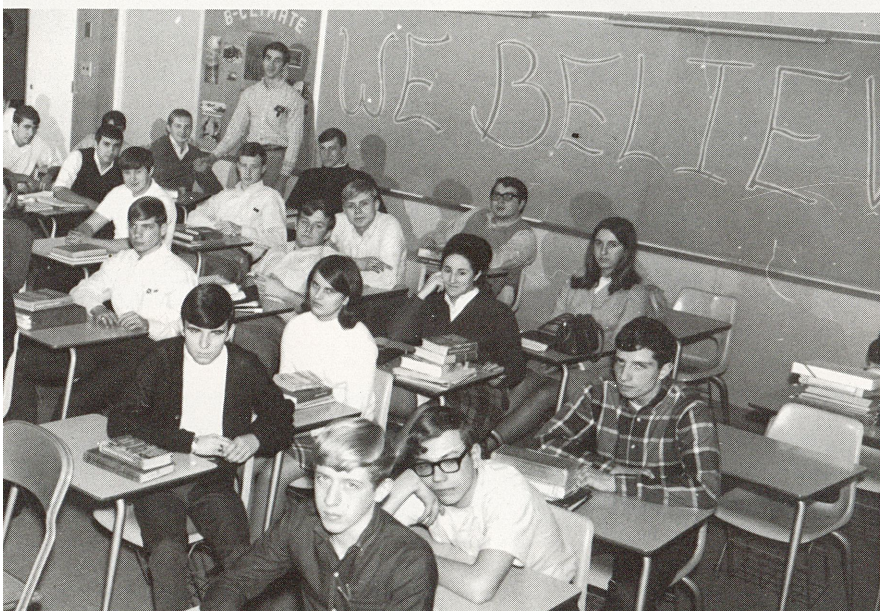

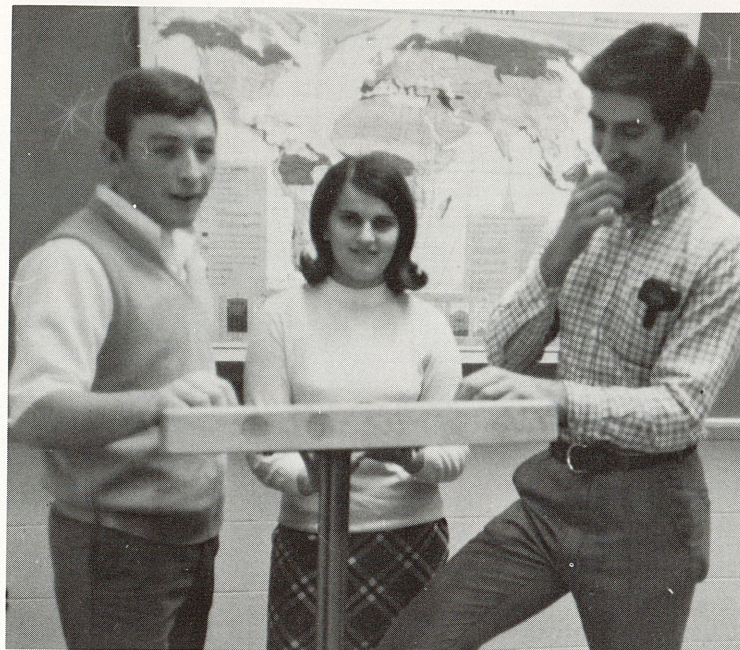

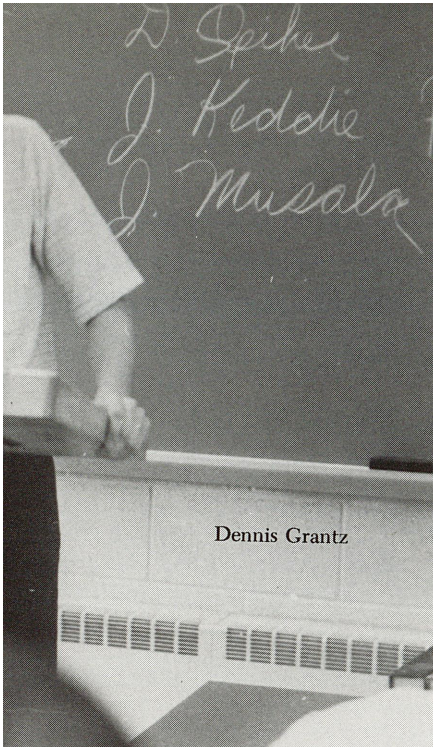

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Our rousing debates were really wild,
Some of those ideas were just unbelievable,
We worked to raise money to pay for the stone to honor Kiski's sons who died in Vietnam;
To understand our prison system
better we invaded the county jail,
Political speakers came and spoke to us,
Through sharing our ideas, we learned more about our political structure.

GEOGRAPHY

We planned various field trips,
 We discussed the earth,
 Speakers came and broadened our
 scope of geography,
 We built a bulletin board
 for geography news,
 We debated different geographical problems.
 We not only learned about geography,
 but also how it affects man.

We studied different aspects of math,
We had speakers who helped us
understand math better,
And we discussed non-classroom
problems of math.
Our first field trips were always fun.
We enriched basic mathematics and made our club one that was both fun and educational.

We also mix our common knowledge with experts in the field.

Doing our best to portray a character and remember those lines.

Attending Thespian induction, seeing our friends make it.

Who could ever forget Miss Wichrowski's "Impromptu"?

After school — we practice, paint, perfect in readiness for the big day.

We try to show emotions, expressions, and feelings that at times seem impossible, but we never give up. Though blinded by the lights, we know the audience is there . . .

We hear them . . .

We feel them . . .

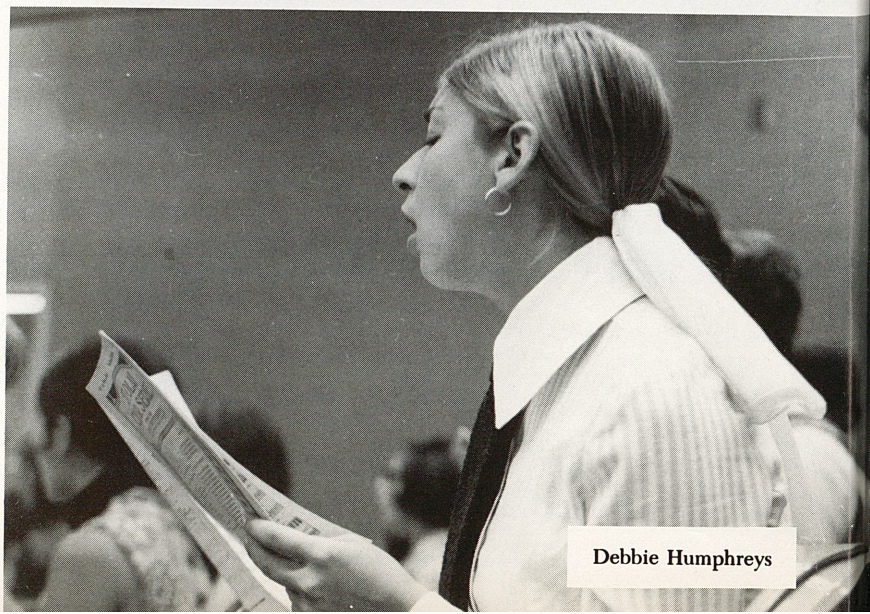

Their warmth generates to us.

Here we gain experience in dramatics which helps us understand life.

The warm up every morning — ye-he-he-he-ya-ha-ha-ha.
 It's almost impossible to find your pitch to Amahl and the Night Visitors.
 The girls just can't get over Mr. Mac's long, blond locks.
 Boy, do we tense up when it's our turn to sing our solo —
 and today just had to be the day I have a cold.
 Wouldn't you know it?
 Dane Skroupa, our student director —
 Someday he may be another Mr. McClelland.
 Everyone is thrilled to wear a choir robe —
 it's an honor diligently earned.

CHORAL GROUPS

CHORAL GROUPS

Talented vocalists participate in the
select choral groups.
The Jazz Ensemble adds that special something that makes the song.
Here we go again,
Hope the student body likes this assembly as much as the last —
We are exhausted mentally and physically.
Feeling that you are the greatest when selected for Mixed Ensemble.
“I hope I don’t hit the wrong note during my solo.”
The tired depression
at the end of a special rehearsal which didn’t go too well.

All you ever hear around here is "If you don't shape up, you won't make an excellent at Carnegie."
We'll never forget those long practices for Amahl.
Sore mouths, sour clarinets, and broken drumsticks . . .

A typical scene is that of mass confusion before
practice — each musician striking up his own tune, others rushing around frantically searching for their instruments.

No wonder Mr. Buncie is always telling us to shut-up.

Every night we lug those big instruments home
on the busses.

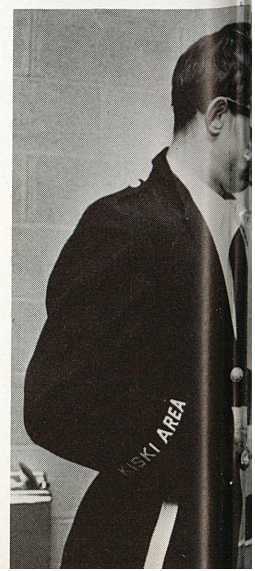

The music's harder than Marching Band so we have to practice more.

Sometimes we envy those majorettes and color-guards who just sit in the back of the room.

The year is climaxed by the Spring Concert
when we finally receive the rewards of hard work.

DANCE BANDS

We're the lively band of the school — we make everyone sit up and listen. Auditions — a little nervous tension, but somehow you know you're going to make it. Entertaining the parents at open house — they think we're pretty good and we are. Sacrificing activity period to perfect our jazz. Portraying the "Big Band" sound with our own version of the Cavalier Song. Taping for the Mid-East Competition. Johnny Richard's arrangement of "Brazil" — Hours and hours of practice result in the South American Sound. The long-awaited concerts in the spring — the fulfillment of a year's hard work.

MARCHING BAND

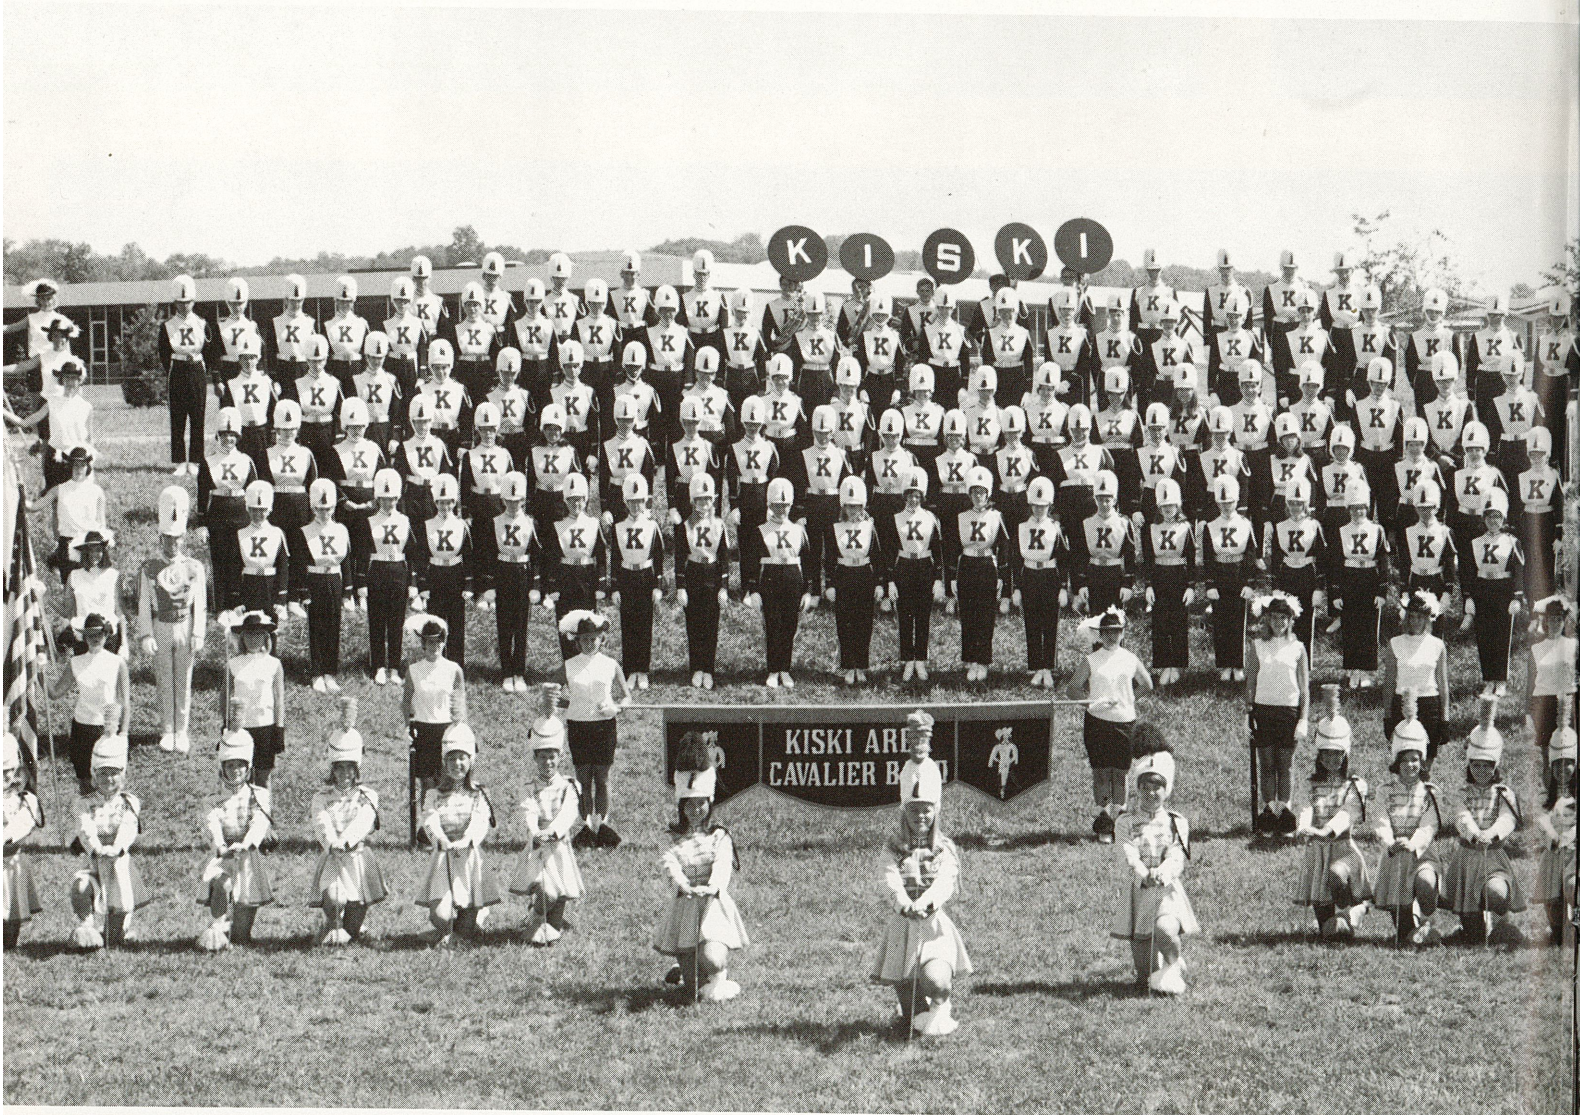

The Kiski Area Cavalier Band marches onto Davis Field
in a glare of lights and that first trumpet blast
enlivens the whole world.

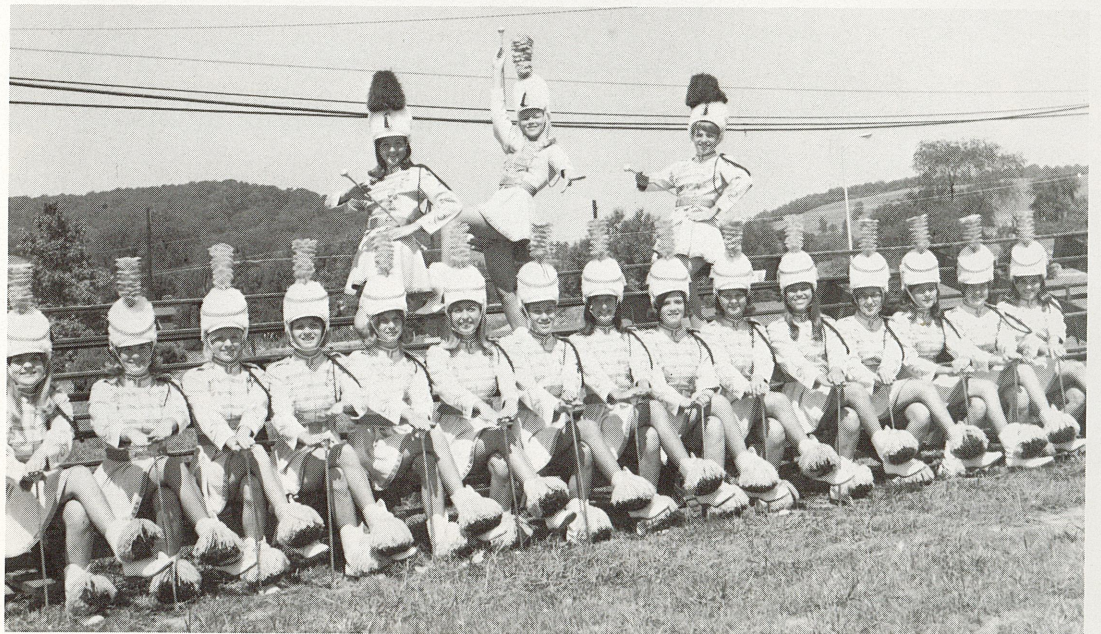

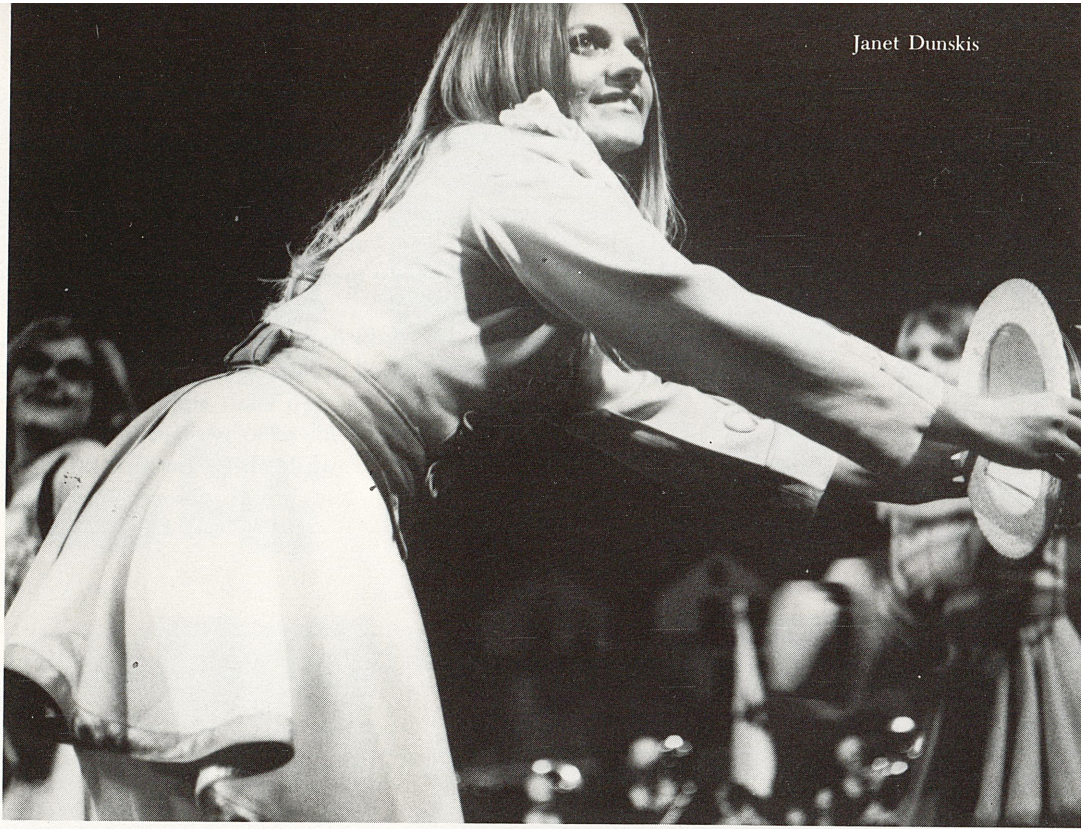

This band can adapt to any situation—
Like D. J. doing the halftime show without her baton, Setting up trap sets for Rudy and Jeff.
And then there was the trip to Toronto. Three bus breakdowns, "We thought we'd never get there!"

Greasy hamburgers, rare steak, loss of sleep,
standing ovation!
First honors at Kittanning, Pittsburgh, and Millvale
all in one day—a tiring but rewarding experience.
Mr. Buncie's constant, "All right, you lepers; get with it!"

Cold and stiff fingers from the two-hour filming of the Disney Show.

Applause is their reward and they get it.

PEP CLUB AND CHEERLEADERS

There they are—down in front dressed in blue and gold,
building enthusiasm in the crowd!

They're not only great, they're the best—who else
won first place at Lycoming?

8:00 pm—Davis Field—go-o-o-o-o-o!

Leaky raincoats, faded pom-poms, soggy cheerleaders.

In the stands, the Pep Club amplifies the spirit.

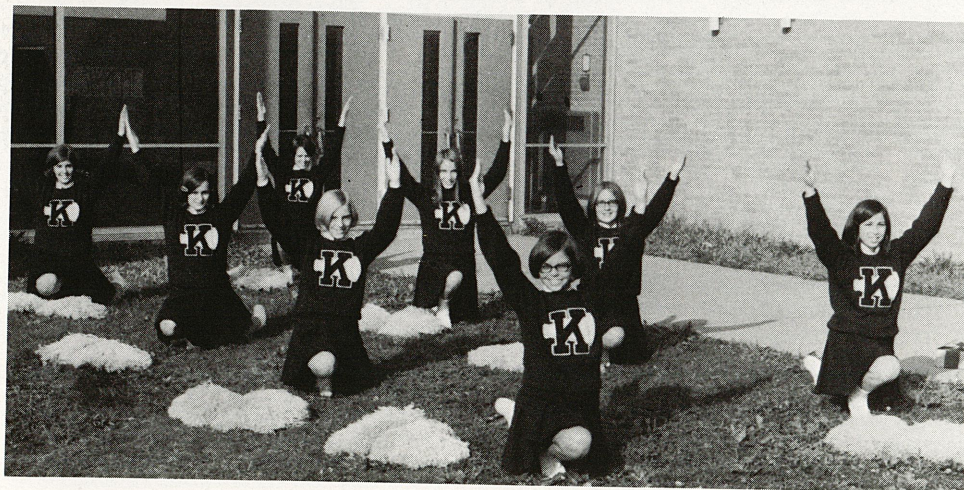

"The wind blew our sign down, so we had to hold it up while the team tore through."

Mums, posters, cold tape—

"We've got that SPIRIT!"

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

Shoulder to the sled, spikes riveting the ground.
We practice our "powers", "blasts", "drives",
and "traps".
Working out of our system all the bad plays,
Learning about our rivals' week spots,
Striving for clockwork precision.
"Booby" and "Zip" spice the scene with humor
and relieve some of the tension.
Suddenly Friday night comes and we're out on the field.
We hear the sometimes frantic, sometimes calm
and confident cheers of our boosters,
And we play harder and better for them.
Power surges forth.
We smell the cleat-dug dirt and sweat poring
off our faces.
Popcorn and other smells never reach our nostrils, but we're conscious of the crowd.
We see a pass and a fellow teammate running,
and sometimes we see pounds of flesh before it crashes down.
We feel that weight, but get up with renewed vigor and a greater will.
All is counted in yards gained, in points scored.
We taste that sweat running off our face.
Even if a loss is scored, we know we've done our best.
We're the Cavaliers and we're proud of it!

BASKETBALL

Our aim is to get that jump ball and score.
We can always count on Blanciak to shoot a swisher.

It was our team work and fast action that made it our undermining No. 1 Valley — who will ever remember that we only had seven points in the first half!

Our secret strategy of running the ball
out the back door was the winning factor.

Enthusiasm and school spirit is at its best this year — that helps a lot.

Leave it to Mundy to get us the ball.

Some games are fairly close — the losses are really killers.

But we are always determined to win the next one.

We starve the night before a match,
 We gotta be that exact weight.

Ready on the line up, Fire one!
 The smell of burning gunpowder

 Rapid repetition of gunfire echos around us.
 Targets vibrating after each shot.
 Trying our best to hit that bull's-eye

 Little too much to the right.
 Steady. Try Again.

 One more hundred should do it.
 After the match, we congratulate the

GYMNASTICS

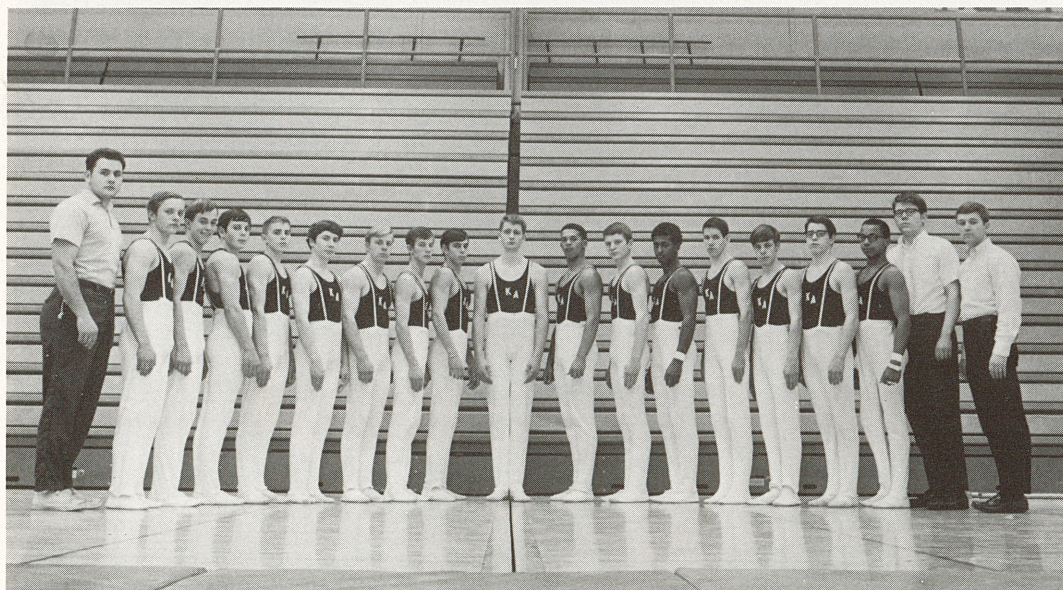

Up in the air we flew from parallel bars,
 high bars, and rings.
 Balance and poise, dexterity and timing
 were important factors for success.
 We awed the audiences with our muscular artistry.
 We practice our form and dismounts
 unceasingly . . .
 Knowing that through our constant efforts
 we would reach ultimate fitness.

We just finished a season last spring
and had to start another one this fall,
At least the weather has improved — it may be a little cooler but it's not as wet.
At every practice we get our warm-up exercises by hiking up the hill.
This game can be hazardous — a few of us have gotten hit with the ball when someone neglected to yell "fore".
We really enjoy playing at courses like the Pittsburgh Field Club and Hillcrest Country Club.
After the game Mr. Ves jokingly commends us on a job well done.

CROSS COUNTRY

We are up at nine and running till noon,
 Then it's two and a half more hours after lunch.
 No pain — No gain!
 Joe Clown always manages to get out of running by hurting his foot
 over the weekend.
 Those away meets — more numerous than other years and far enough away for our Kool-Aid to thaw.
 Run, Buddy, run!
 Mr. Creigh's "Charleys" put up a good fight.

SWIMMING

After the fury of the fall sports was over,
we dove into our section's schedule,
Determined to place first in the standings.
False starts, breaking old records,
Steps crowded with spectators —
Commonplace items at our meets.
Muscle tone, timing, perseverance —
Absolute necessities in our sport.
As a matter of fact we were the first team
in our school's history to place first in the section.
